Chang-tai Hung,2020-03-17 It is generally believed that Mao Zedong s populism was an abrupt departure from traditional Chinese thought This study demonstrates that many of its key concepts had been developed several decades earlier by young May Fourth intellectuals including Liu Fu Zhou Zuoren and Gu Jiegang The Chinese folk literature movement begun at National Beijing University in 1918 changed the attitudes of Chinese intellectuals toward literature and toward the common people Turning their backs on high culture and Confucianism young folklorists began going to the people particularly peasants to gather the songs legends children s stories and proverbs that Chang tai Hung here describes and analyzes Their focus on rural culture rural people and rural problems was later to be expanded by the Chinese Communist revolutionaries

Chinese Folklore Studies Today Lijun Zhang,Ziying You,2019-09-13 Chinese folklorists are well acquainted with the work of their English language colleagues but until recently the same could not be said about American scholars knowledge of Chinese folkloristics Chinese Folklore Studies Today aims to address this knowledge gap by illustrating the dynamics of contemporary folklore studies in China as seen through the eyes of the up and coming generation of scholars Contributors to this volume focuses on topics that have long been the dominant areas of folklore studies in China including myth folk song and cultural heritage as well as topics that are new to the field such as urban folklore and women s folklore The ethnographic case studies presented here represent a broad range of geographic areas within mainland China and also introduce English language readers to relevant Chinese literature on each topic creating the foundation for further cross cultural collaborations between English language and Chinese folkloristics Robert Merry's Museum ,1843 Chinese Cultural Diplomacy in the 21st Century Minglei Wang,2025-09-23 This book examines the China Cultural Centre CCC project s establishment operation and programming through the lens of cultural diplomacy The work illuminates the main structural and operational characteristics of the CCC project by highlighting their similarities and differences compared to other cultural diplomacy initiatives especially the Confucius Institutes CIs It also provides insights on its working modes and associated activities primarily based on the case of the CCC in Australia supplemented by information from other CCCs Furthermore it sheds light on the implications for the CCC project expanding current discussions about Chinese cultural diplomacy The book holds that the operation and programming of CCCs reflect common views of Chinese cultural diplomacy strategically orientated state led and quantity driven while also highlighting the inclusion of foreign collaborators and a bottom up strategy for facilitating engagement and understanding This book will be of much interest to students of diplomacy studies public diplomacy foreign
