materiality, visuality and soundscapes and finally the issues of sacramental mediation online. A concluding chapter brings together the insights from the previous chapters and maps a way forward for reflections on digitally mediated liturgical practices. Worship is the first monograph dedicated to exploring online liturgical practices that have emerged since the introduction of Web 2.0. Bringing together the scholarly tools and insights of liturgical studies, constructive theology and digital media theories, it is vital reading for scholars of Theology and Religion, as well as Sociology and Digital Culture more generally.

This Assembly of Believers Bryan Cones, 2020-11-30. Among the symbols with which the liturgy deals, none is more important than this assembly of believers. This claim made in the 1970s forces the local church to consider those within its congregation and recognise the gifts and challenges of difference within the church community. In This Assembly of Believers, Bryan Cones seeks to take seriously the pastoral context of a congregation recognising the physical ability, gender and sexuality of those who make up the congregation. Starting each chapter with their lived experience, Cones poses important questions of the liturgy in light of these experiences before realigning the liturgy to demonstrate the positive theological significance of the marginalised within the congregation.

The Eucharistic Liturgy Jameson K. Pallikunnil, 2017-03-20. The Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church exists as a hybrid church by blending the Eastern liturgical elements of the Oriental Orthodox Church and the evangelical ideas of the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century. This Church is a bridging church connecting Protestantism and Oriental Orthodoxy. The reformation in the Malankara Church 1836 instigated a new impetus for this church in constructing an ecclesial identity and pattern of mission. A major missiological imperative employed by CMS missionaries in India was solely centered on the scripture. Against this popular understanding, the Mar Thoma Church through its reformation process showed that liturgy can also be an imperative for mission. The translation and revision of the Eucharistic liturgy is the basic visible expression of reformation in the Malankara Church. Hence, this book explicitly places how the Eucharistic liturgy of the Mar Thoma Church is observed as the foundation for mission in its course of growth. In order to accomplish this objective, the writer has examined the historical evolution and the developmental process of the Eucharistic liturgy of the church, which is a revised version of the liturgy of St James. In a nutshell, this study is an appraisal of various missiological themes reflected in the Eucharistic liturgy of the church. This study throws ample light on how the Mar Thoma Church integrated liturgy and evangelism in its course of development. The writer systematically illustrates how the church made a serious effort to bring missional themes employed in the liturgy into the practical realm by its ancillary organizations, convention gatherings and socio-charitable works. This volume asserts that an emphasis on Eucharist-centred ecclesiology guides and motivates the church to enliven a mission-oriented life, which is crucial for accomplishing a relevant mission.

We Give Our Thanks Unto Thee Porter C. Taylor, 2019-04-17. Fr Alexander Schmemmann continues to influence liturgical and sacramental theologies some thirty-five years after his death. written about him from an ecumenical context This volume of collected essays seeks to explore his theological legacy and further his work With essays from leading scholars such as David Fagerberg Bruce Morrill Joyce Zimmerman and more this volume is meant for both teachers and students of liturgical and sacramental theology In an effort to introduce Schmemmann to a wider audience and to celebrate his work through meaningful engagement and dialogue contributors come from a wide variety of ecclesiastical backgrounds Anglican Roman Catholic Orthodox Lutheran Presbyterian Methodist Free Church and more The Eucharist is therefore the manifestation of the Church as the new aeon it is participation in the Kingdom as the parousia as the presence of the Resurrected and Resurrecting Lord It is not the repetition of His advent or coming into the world but the lifting up of the Church into His parousia the Church's participation in His heavenly glory Fr Alexander Schmemmann Introduction to Liturgical Theology p 72
