Nadwa Tul Ulma Result 2015:

Pluralisation of Theologies at European Universities Wolfram Weiße, Julia Ipgrave, Oddbjørn Leirvik, Muna

Tatari, 2020 This publication assumes that the modern context of plurality requires universities and higher education to support studying plural religious traditions in depth giving due consideration to plural religious and secular perspectives and providing opportunities for interaction between them There are various ways to realise these aims Success may be supported or hindered by various structures and concepts prevalent in universities or by different schools of thought on the nature of religions on their relation to each other and on their place in society Religions and theologies can be studied in parallel in cooperation in dialogue or through integrative approaches The differing theoretical positions and contextual conditions institutional social political within which inter religious learning takes place are an important focus of this publication both for the possibilities they open up and the limitations they pose This publication builds on the presentations and discussions of scholars participating at a conference at the University of Hamburg in December 2018 with some additional contributions from others in the field who were unable to attend in person

Indian Muslims and Citizenship Julten

Abdelhalim, 2015-10-05 Through the creation of post colonial citizenship India adopted a hybridisation of specific secular and western conception of citizenship In this democratic framework Indian Muslims are observed on how they make use of the spaces and channels to accommodate their Islamic identity within a secular one This book analyses how the socio political context shapes citizens perceptions of multiple variables such as their sense of political efficacy agency conception of citizenship rights and belief in democracy Based on extensive surveys and interviews and through presenting and investigating the various meanings of jih d the author explores the usage of non Eurocentric conceptual approaches to the study of postcolonial and Muslim societies in particular the meaning it carries in the psyche of the Muslim community She argues that through means of argumentative and spiritual jih d Indian Muslims fight their battle towards a realisation of citizenship ideals despite the unfavourable conditions of intra and inter community conflicts Presenting new examinations of Islamic identity and citizenship in contemporary India this book will be a useful contribution to the study of South Asian Studies Religion Islam and Race and Ethnicity

Muslim Political Discourse in Postcolonial India Hilal

Ahmed, 2015-06-03 The book examines the postcolonial Muslim political discourse through monuments It establishes a link between the process by which historic buildings become monuments and the gradual transformation of these historic legal entities into political objects The author studies the multiple interpretations of Indo Islamic historical buildings as political sites as well as emerging Muslim religiosities and the internal configurations of Muslim politics in India He also looks at the modes by which a memory of a royal Muslim past is articulated for political mobilisation Raising critical questions such as whether Muslim responses to political questions are homogenous the book will greatly interest researchers and students of political science modern Indian history sociology as well as the general reader interested in contemporary India

Islam,

Sufism and Everyday Politics of Belonging in South Asia Deepra Dandekar, Torsten Tschacher, 2016-09-13 This book looks at the study of ideas practices and institutions in South Asian Islam commonly identified as Sufism and how they relate to politics in South Asia While the importance of Sufism for the lives of South Asian Muslims has been repeatedly asserted the specific role played by Sufism in contestations over social and political belonging in South Asia has not yet been fully analysed Looking at examples from five countries in South Asia India Pakistan Bangladesh Sri Lanka and Afghanistan the book begins with a detailed introduction to political concerns over belonging in relation to questions concerning Sufism and Islam in South Asia This is followed with sections on Producing and Identifying Sufism Everyday and Public Forms of Belonging Sufi Belonging Local and National and Intellectual History and Narratives of Belonging Bringing together scholars from diverse disciplines the book explores the connection of Islam Sufism and the Politics of Belonging in South Asia It is an important contribution to South Asian Studies Islamic Studies and South Asian Religion Shaping Global Islamic Discourses Masooda Bano, 2015-03-20 Explores the influence of centres of Islamic learning using 3 case studies Al Azhar University in Egypt International Islamic University of Medina in Saudi Arabia and Al Mustafa University in Iran Islam: The Way of Revival Riza Mohammed, Dilwar Hussain, 2015-07-02 In this refreshingly different book one can relish the works and ideas of numerous Muslim scholars and leaders of the 20th century The contributors include Muhammad Asad Yusuf al Qaradawi Hasan al Banna Sayyid Qutb Khurshid Ahmad and Sayyid Abul A la Mawdudi This title is especially useful for those seeking to enhance their understanding of Islam through personal and group study Creating a New Medina Venkat Dhulipala, 2015-02-09 This book examines how the idea of Pakistan was articulated and debated in the public sphere and how popular enthusiasm was generated for its successful achievement especially in the crucial province of UP now Uttar Pradesh in the last decade of British colonial rule in India It argues that Pakistan was not a simply a vague idea that serendipitously emerged as a nation state but was popularly imagined as a sovereign Islamic State a new Medina as some called it In this regard it was envisaged as the harbinger of Islam s renewal and rise in the twentieth century the new leader and protector of the global community of Muslims and a worthy successor to the defunct Turkish Caliphate The book also specifically foregrounds the critical role played by Deobandi ulama in articulating this imagined national community with an awareness of Pakistan s global historical significance The Return of Religious Antisemitism? Gunther Jikeli, 2021-02-17 The most violent American and European anti Semites in the 21st century including not only Jihadists but also white and black supremacist terrorist made some reference to religion in their hatred of Jews This is surprising Religious antisemitism is often seen as a relic of the past It is more associated with pre modern societies where the role of religion was central to social and political order However at the end of the 19th century animosity against Judaism gave way to nationalistic and racist motives People such as Wilhelm Marr called themselves anti Semites to distinguish themselves from those who despised Jews for religious reasons Since then antisemitism has gone through many mutations However today it is not only the actions of extremely violent anti Semites who might be an indication that religious antisemitism has come back in new forms Some churches have been accused of disseminating antisemitic arguments related to ideas of replacement theology in modernized forms and applied to the Jewish State Others from the populist nationalist right seem to use Christianity as an identity marker and thus exclude Jews and Muslims from the nation Do religious motifs play a significant role in the resurgence of antisemitism in the 21st century

Islam and Nationalism in India M.T. Ansari,2015-10-30 Islam in India as elsewhere continues to be seen as a remainder in its refusal to conform to national and international secular modern norms Such a general perception has also had a tremendous impact on the Muslims of the Indian subcontinent who as individuals and communities have been shaped and transformed over centuries of socio political and historical processes by eroding their world view and steadily erasing their life worlds This book traces the spectral presence of Islam across narratives to note that difference and diversity demographic as well as cultural can be espoused rather than excised or exorcized Focusing on Malabar home to the Mappila Muslim community in Kerala South India and drawing mostly on Malayalam sources the author investigates the question of Islam from various angles by constituting an archive comprising popular administrative academic and literary discourses The author contends that an uncritical insistence on unity has led to a formation in which minor subjects embody an excess of identity in contrast to the Hindu citizen whose identity seemingly coincides with the national This has led to Muslims being the source of a deep seated anxiety for secular nationalism and the targets of a resurgent Hindutva in that they expose the fault lines of a geographically and socio culturally unified nation An interdisciplinary study of Islam in India from the South Indian context this book will be of interest to scholars of modern Indian history political science literary and cultural studies and Islamic studies

What Is a Madrasa? Ebrahim Moosa,2015-04-06 Taking us inside the world of the madrasa the most common type of school for religious instruction in the Islamic world Ebrahim Moosa provides an indispensable resource for anyone seeking to understand orthodox Islam in global affairs Focusing on postsecondary level religious institutions in the Indo Pakistan heartlands Moosa explains how a madrasa can simultaneously be a place of learning revered by many and an institution feared by many others especially in a post 9 11 world Drawing on his own years as a madrasa student in India Moosa describes in fascinating detail the daily routine for teachers and students today He shows how classical theological legal and Qur'anic texts are taught and he illuminates the history of ideas and politics behind the madrasa system Addressing the contemporary political scene in a clear eyed manner Moosa introduces us to madrasa leaders who hold diverse and conflicting perspectives on the place of religion in society Some admit that they face intractable problems and challenges including militancy others Moosa says hide their heads in the sand and fail to address the crucial issues of the day Offering practical suggestions to both madrasa leaders and U S policymakers for reform and understanding Moosa demonstrates how madrasas today still embody the highest aspirations and deeply felt needs of traditional Muslims

Imagining Pakistan Rasul Bakhsh Rais,2017-08-30 Imagining Pakistan argues that the creation of Pakistan is a result of Muslim modernism in the Subcontinent as it defined the struggle for identity nationalism and empowerment of Muslim communities This modernist movement represented the ideals of inclusivity equal rights a liberal constitutional framework and a shared sense of political community among diverse ethnic and regional groups However while this modernity was the ideal of Pakistan s founders it faced resistance from Islamists obsessed with recovering a past legacy of lost Muslim glory A major threat to political modernism also came from the military that wanted to create a strong and secure Pakistan through controlled democracy Multiple interventions by the military and deviations from the foundational republican ideas left Pakistan in the rough sea of power struggles causing institutional decay and creating space for the rise of radical Islam Imagining Pakistan analyzes the institutional imbalance between the military and the civilian groups the idea of the security state and the Islamist social forces and movements that have been engaged in the politics of Islamic revival It argues that Pakistan s stability security and progress will depend on pursuing the path of political modernity Although the restoration of parliamentary democracy and the resilience of the Pakistani society are hopeful signs resolving the critical issues that Pakistan faces today will require consolidation of democracy better leadership and a moderate and modernist vision of both the state and the society

Islam in the Third Millennium Mohammad Soukat Ali,2015-09-22 Islam after many centuries in the worlds most open intellectually developed and creative civilization has lost its way for a long time Muslims are now engaged in sectarian rivalries and mutually destructive activities simultaneously developing a narrow view of the broader worldfailing to make much progress for a long time and acting aimlessly they seem to be a misfit with other people Along with the usual ideas of reformation of Islam this book incorporates many lateral and radical thoughts These may inspire Muslims to regain vitality make progress and live in harmony with other people for a peaceful world

Islam and Rationality Frank

Griffel, 2015-10-20 Al Ghazali d 505 1111 is one of the most influential thinkers of Islam. There is hardly a genre of Islamic literature where he is not regarded as a major authority. Islamic Law, Sufism, ethics, philosophy, and theology are all deeply shaped by him. Yet in the past thirty years, the field of Ghazali studies has been shaken by the realization that Avicenna, Ibn Sina d 428 1037, and other philosophers had a strong influence on him. Now, after the 900th anniversary of his death, the field emerges stronger than ever. This second volume of Islam and Rationality: The Impact of al Ghazali brings together twelve leading experts on al Ghazali who write about his thought and the impact it had on later Muslim thinkers. Contributors are Anna Aytekin Akasoy, Ahmed El Shamsy, Kenneth Garden, Frank Griffel, Jules Janssens, Damien Janos, Taneli Kukkonen, Stephen Ogden, M. Sait Zervari, Martin Riexinger, Ulrich Rudolph, and Ayman Shihadeh. Muslims in Interwar Europe, 2015-10-05. Muslims in Interwar Europe provides a comprehensive overview of the history of Muslims in interwar Europe. Based on personal and official archives, memoirs, press writings, and correspondences, the contributors analyse the multiple aspects of the global Muslim religious, political, and intellectual affiliations in interwar Europe. They argue that Muslims in interwar Europe were neither simply visitors nor colonial victims but that they constituted a group of engaged actors in the European and international space. Contributors are Ali Al Tuma, Egdinas Raudas, Gerdien Jonker, Klaas Stutje, Naomi Davidson, Pieter Sjoerd van Koningsveld, Umar Ryad, Zaur Gasimov, and Wiebke Bachmann. This title is available online in its entirety in Open Access. Religion and the Politics of Development. P. Fountain, R. Bush, M. Feener, 2015-04-07. This volume brings emerging research on religion and development into conversation with politics. Deploying innovative conceptual frameworks and drawing on empirical research from across contemporary Asia, this collection makes an incisive contribution to the analysis of aid and development processes. Beyond Babel: Religion and Linguistic Pluralism. Andrea Vestrucci, 2023-10-31. This volume is the first attempt to investigate explicitly how the multiplicity of religions and forms of spirituality interconnect with the pluralism of languages, including scientific codes, formal languages, and artistic expressions. In a journey beyond Babel, the volume explores how religious and linguistic pluralisms enter into polyphonic relations, how they co-evolve and grow together, and why they clash. This text provides the setting for a dialogue on a rich variety of religious languages and traditions, including Hinduism, Judaism, Islam, Jainism, and Christianity. The chapters explore how these traditions can venture into new interreligious paths, how sacred meanings translate into vernacular speeches, how religious identities and scientific notions interact, what role emotional expressions play in interfaith encounters, and the impact of Artificial Intelligence on beliefs. The book is authored by esteemed senior scholars, established researchers, and exceptional junior doctorate holders whose expertise spans across religious studies, the history of science, philosophy, fine arts, theology, linguistics, computer science, and legal studies. This volume contributes to interfaith studies and teaching, to sociology and philosophy of religion, and to the history and anthropology of religion and the sacred arts. It is intended to reach students, researchers, instructors, and professionals alike. Impact of Artificial Intelligence, and the Fourth Industrial Revolution on Business Success

Bahaaeddin Alareeni, Allam Hamdan, 2022-07-29 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the International Conference on Business and Technology ICBT2021 organized by EuroMid Academy of Business Technology EMABT held in Istanbul between 06-07 November 2021.
