Education and Democracy in China Zhou Ying, 2023-12-11 In this book Ying Zhou argues that educational reform filled a critical role in bridging the precarious gap between democratic ideals and political realities in late Qing and Republican China where institutional change in education and the cultivation of a qualified citizenry were two sides of the same coin in the development of democratic education Through a multi level analysis of the re arrangements of national education and teachings of citizenship Zhou unravels the complex political and educational nexus in China between 1901 1937 where the hope of education was to bring both political modernity and social progress Civic

Conflict Resolution and Ontological Security Bahar Rumelili, 2014-12-17 This volume highlights the ways in which the prospect of peace can generate anxieties and consequently set in motion social and political processes that reproduce and reactivate conflicts In analysing this issue the volume builds on the notion of ontological security and its recent applications to international relations theory Although conflicts threaten the physical security of the parties involved they also help settle existential questions about basic parameters of life being and identity and thus over time become sources of ontological security The prospect of peace through the resolution or transformation of conflict threatens to unsettle the stability and consistency of self narratives and their associated routines and habits at the individual group and state levels The contributors argue two key points 1 that ontological insecurity may set in motion political and social processes that reproduce and reactivate conflicts 2 that coping with peace anxieties necessitates the formulation of alternative self narratives at the individual societal and state levels that re situate the Self in relation to Other and to the world at large Consequently the book analyses the ways in which and the conditions under which conflict resolution induces ontological insecurity and the different ways in which ontological insecurity has prevented the successful culmination of peace processes in different conflict contexts including Cyprus Israel Palestine and Northern Ireland This book will be of much interest to students of critical security studies conflict resolution peace and conflict studies social theory and IR in general Islam in the Modern World Jeffrey T. Kenney, Ebrahim Moosa, 2013-08-15 This comprehensive introduction explores the landscape of contemporary Islam Written by a distinguished team of scholars it provides broad overviews of the developments events people and movements that have defined Islam in the three majority Muslim regions traces the connections between traditional Islamic institutions and concerns and their modern manifestations and transformations How are medieval ideas policies and practices refashioned to address modern circumstances investigates new themes and trends that are shaping the modern Muslim experience such as gender fundamentalism the media and secularisation offers case studies of Muslims and Islam in dynamic interaction with different societies Islam in the Modern World includes illustrations summaries discussion points and suggestions for further reading that will aid understanding and revision Additional resources are provided via a companion website The Routledge International Handbook of Life and Values Education in Asia John Chi-Kin Lee, Kerry J Kennedy, 2024-06-28 This Handbook provides a comprehensive look at the educational scope of life and values that characterize 21st century Asia as well as those values shared across cultures Some values are deeply resonant with the region's past while others reflect modernity and the new contexts in which Asian societies find themselves Exploring these values of different types and the way they are constructed in Eastern and Western contexts the contributors delve into the diversity of religious moral and social education to promote greater understanding across cultures While a range of values is identified here there is no single set of values that can be applied to all people in all contexts The time has long gone even for single societies when values can be imposed Yet this Handbook emphasizes both the extent and importance of values to individuals and their societies how they respond to these values may provide the key to better and more caring societies and to better lives for all Academics and teachers will find this Handbook resourceful because it raises important theoretical issues related to social values and their formation in distinctive contexts and provides novel insights into the diverse educational landscape in Asia Policymakers and educators will also find this text helpful in learning to think about new ways to improve the quality of people's lives Textbooks and War Eugenia Roldán Vera, Eckhardt Fuchs, 2018-10-04 This volume reflects on the role played by textbooks in the complex relationship between war and education from a historical and multinational perspective asking how textbook content and production can play a part in these processes It has long been established that history textbooks play a key role in shaping the next generation's understanding of both past events and the concept of friend and foe Considering both current and historical textbooks often through a bi-national comparative approach the editors and contributors investigate various important aspects of the relationships between textbooks and war including the role wars play in the creation of national identities whether the country is on the winning or losing side the effacement of international wars to highlight a country's exceptionalism or the obscuring of intra-national conflict through the ways in which a civil war is portrayed This pioneering book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of textbooks
