Nancy's Theory of Style Grace Coopersmith, 2010-05-18 While Nancy Edith Carrington Chambers is busy preparing for San Francisco society's biggest fundraiser the fussy fashionista experiences some cataclysmic revelations that turn her world upside down

Style in Theory Ivan Callus, James Corby, Gloria Lauri-Lucente, 2012-12-06 What in theory is style How has style been rethought in literary theory Drawing together leading academics working within and across the disciplines of English philosophy literary theory and comparative literature Style in Theory Between Philosophy and Literature sets out to rethink the important but all too often overlooked issue of style exploring in particular how the theoretical humanities open conceptual spaces that afford and encourage reflection on the nature of style the ways in which style is experienced and how style allows disciplinary boundaries to be both drawn and transgressed Offering incisive reflections on style from a diverse and contemporary range of theoretical and methodological perspectives the essays contained in this volume critically revisit and challenge accepted accounts of style and provide fresh and compelling readings of the relevance in any rethinking of style of specific works by the likes of Shakespeare Petrarch Kant Nietzsche Heidegger Deleuze Blanchot Derrida Nancy Cixous and Meillassoux

Understanding Nancy, Understanding Modernism Cosmin Toma, 2023-01-12 Over the past three decades Jean Luc Nancy has become one of the most celebrated contemporary philosophers His remarkably diverse body of work which deals with such topics as post Heideggerian ontology Christian painting the experience of drunkenness heart transplants contemporary cinema and the problem of freedom is entirely immersed in modernity as he puts it Within this plural framework art which he explicitly defines as a modern construct plays a singular role in that it is the very prism through which he explores the problems of sense and feeling in general particularly as they relate to our experience of modernity The contributors to Understanding Nancy Understanding Modernism fully delve into the heretofore under acknowledged and under explored modernism of Nancy's writings on philosophy and the arts through close readings of his key works as well as broader essays on the relationship between his thought and aesthetic modernity In addition to an interview with Nancy himself a final section consists of an extended glossary of Nancy's signature terms which will be a valuable resource for students and experts alike

A Biocultural Approach to Literary Theory and Interpretation Nancy Easterlin, 2012-05-31 Combining cognitive and evolutionary research with traditional humanist methods Nancy Easterlin demonstrates how a biocultural perspective in theory and criticism opens up new possibilities for literary interpretation Easterlin maintains that the practice of literary interpretation is still of central intellectual and social value Taking an open yet judicious approach she argues however that literary interpretation stands to gain dramatically from a fair minded and creative application of cognitive and evolutionary research This work does just that expounding a biocultural method that charts a middle course between overly reductive approaches to literature and traditionalists who see the sciences as a threat to the humanities Easterlin develops her biocultural method by comparing it to four major subfields within literary studies new historicism ecocriticism cognitive approaches and evolutionary approaches After a thorough review of each subfield she reconsiders them in light of relevant research in cognitive and evolutionary psychology and provides a textual analysis of literary works from the romantic era to the present including William Wordsworth's Simon Lee and the Lucy poems Mary Robinson's Old Barnard Samuel Taylor Coleridge's Dejection An Ode D H Lawrence's The Fox Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea and Raymond Carver's I Could See the Smallest Things A Biocultural Approach to Literary Theory and Interpretation offers a fresh and reasoned approach to literary studies that at once preserves the central importance that interpretation plays in the humanities and embraces the exciting developments of the cognitive sciences

The Literary Absolute Philippe Lacoue-Labarthe, Jean-Luc Nancy, 1988-02-28 The Literary Absolute is the first authoritative study of the emergence of the modern concept of literature in German romanticism The authors trace this concept from the philosophical crisis bequeathed by Kant to his successors to its development by the central figures of the Athenaeum group the Schlegel brothers Schelling and Novalis This study situates the Jena romantics fragmentary model of literature a model of literature as the production of its own theory in relation to the development of a post Kantian conception of philosophy as the total and reflective auto production of the thinking subject Analyzing key texts of the period the authors articulate the characteristics of romantic thought and at the same time show historical and systematic connections with modern literary theory Thus The Literary Absolute renews contemporary scholarship showing the romantic origins of some of the leading issues in current critical theory

The Conflagration of Community J. Hillis Miller, 2011-08-01 After Auschwitz to write even a single poem is barbaric The Conflagration of Community challenges Theodor Adorno's famous statement about aesthetic production after the Holocaust arguing for the possibility of literature to bear witness to extreme collective and personal experiences J Hillis Miller masterfully considers how novels about the Holocaust relate to fictions written before and after it and uses theories of community from Jean Luc Nancy and Derrida to explore the dissolution of community bonds in its wake Miller juxtaposes readings of books about the Holocaust Keneally's Schindler's List McEwan's Black Dogs Spiegelman's Maus and Kertsz's Fatelessness with Kafka's novels and Morrison's Beloved asking what it means to think of texts as acts of testimony Throughout Miller questions the resonance between the difficulty of imagining understanding or remembering Auschwitz a difficulty so often a theme in records of the Holocaust and the exasperating resistance to clear conclusive interpretation of these novels The Conflagration of Community is an eloquent study of literature's value to fathoming the unfathomable
