

My Summer

"Ring, ring, ring!" I jumped for joy at the sound of the school bell on the last day of school. I couldn't wait for school to be out because I knew I was going to have an amazing summer!

First of all, I went to Arizona to visit my Aunt Cindy. For two weeks, I had fun with my favorite aunt. When she saw me, she said, "How's my favorite niece?" I replied, "I'm your only niece!" We had a great time shopping, swimming, and baking cookies. It's always great to visit my Aunt Cindy.

After I got back home, I stayed up late many nights and watched a lot of movies. I like scary movies, but my mom always says, "Scary movies keep you up at night!" She won't let me watch them during the school year. However, she lets me watch some scary movies in the summer since I don't have to get up for school. Staying up late is awesome!

Finally, I did my favorite activity of all. I worked on my crafty scrapbooking projects. There were boxes of pictures just waiting for me to turn them into cute scrapbook pages. I missed my friends from school, so I enjoyed creating colorful pages to help me remember all the fun we had. I made some fantastic scrapbook pages!

I like school, but I love summer! It's really the best time of the year. I wish it would never end!

Graesser, John B. Black, 2017-12-15 Originally published in 1985 the chapters in this volume collectively approach the phenomenon of questioning from many perspectives There are studies on question comprehension question answering question asking and the influence of adjunct questions on text comprehension and memory The chapters cover different theories models methods and practical applications Some contributors focus exclusively on adult subjects whereas others examine cognitive development in children The earlier chapters in the book have a pure science emphasis whereas the later chapters have an applied emphasis Of course the distinction between science and application had in the editors words become very fuzzy in the years prior to publication A Rhetoric of Doing Stephen Paul Witte, Neil Nakadate, Roger Dennis Cherry, 1992 Concerned with both the nature and the practice of discourse the eighteen essays collected here treat rhetoric as a dynamic enterprise of inquiry exploration and application and in doing so reflect James L Kinneavy's firm belief in the vital relationship between theory and practice his commitment to a spirit of accommodation and assimilation that promotes the development of ever more powerful theories and ever more useful practices A thorough introduction provides the reader with clear summaries of the essays by leading edge theorists researchers and teachers of writing and rhetoric A field context for the ideas presented in this book is provided through the division of the various chapters into four major sections that focus on classical rhetoric and rhetorical theory in historical contexts on dimensions of discourse theory aspects of discourse communities and the sorts of knowledge people access and use in producing written texts on writing in school related contexts and on several dimensions of nonacademic writing A fifth section contains a bibliographic survey and an appreciation of James Kinneavy's work The exceptional range of these essays makes A Rhetoric of Doing an ecumenical examination of the current state of mind in rhetoric and written communication a survey and description of what discourse and those in the field of discourse are in fact doing
