the Japanese governments     The Condition of Women in France Claire Laubier, 2003-09-02 Claire Laubier brings together documentary and statistical material extracts from newspapers and journals literary texts advertisements manifestos and personal testimonies Each extract relates to the different experiences of women in France at work in politics at home and in the family Together they offer a direct and thought provoking chronological and thematic account of women's lives in post war France     An Algebraic Introduction to Complex Projective Geometry Christian Peskine, 1843 In this introduction to commutative algebra the author chooses a route that leads the reader through the essential ideas without getting embroiled in technicalities He takes the reader quickly to the fundamentals of complex projective geometry requiring only a basic knowledge of linear and multilinear algebra and some elementary group theory The author divides the book into three parts In the first he develops the general theory of noetherian rings and modules He includes a certain amount of homological algebra and he emphasizes rings and modules of fractions as preparation for working with sheaves In the second part he discusses polynomial rings in several variables with coefficients in the field of complex numbers After Noether's normalization lemma and Hilbert's Nullstellensatz the author introduces affine complex schemes and their morphisms he then proves Zariski's main theorem and Chevalley's semi continuity theorem Finally the author's detailed study of Weil and Cartier divisors provides a solid background for modern intersection theory This is an excellent textbook for those who seek an efficient and rapid introduction to the geometric applications of commutative algebra     The Correspondence of Michael Faraday Michael Faraday, 1991 The complete Correspondence which will comprise six volumes is a landmark resource for all historians of science and technology Nearly two thirds of the letters in this 4th volume are previously unpublished They concern Faraday's work on such diverse topics as terrestrial and atmospheric magnetism the electrification of lighthouses and the theory of telegraphic retardation as well as advice to the Government on the war with Russia his exclusion from the Sandemanian Church and his views on table turning Correspondence with such figures as Thomson Babbage Brunel Schoenbein and Whewell     Jean Nouvel Olivier Boissière, 1844     Bulletin, 1917     Douglas le Vampire. Drame fantastique en cinq actes [and in prose], etc Jules DORNAY, 1865     Les Cahiers Britanniques Et Américains, 1917     Convex Surfaces Herbert Busemann, 1837     Shea's Cramoisy Press Series, 1865     Latin Christian Writers in Late Antiquity and their Texts Mark Vessey, 2024-10-28 By close engagement with both traditional and contemporary approaches to ancient Christian literature Latin Christian Writers in Late Antiquity and their Texts seeks to delineate a historiographical problem at the same time rendering patristics as part of the subject matter of a new literary history After preliminary essays marking out the field the volume is organized in three sections by authors forms of discourse and disciplines Released from the theological discipline of patristics the writings of the church fathers have in recent decades become the common property of students of early Christianity late antiquity and the classical tradition In principle they are now no more nor less than sources documents and literary texts like others from their period and milieux Yet when replaced in the longer history of Western textual and literary practices the collective literary oeuvre of Latin clerics monks and ascetic freelances of the Later Roman Empire may still seem to occupy a place of decisive if not canonical importance How does one now account for the abiding formativeness of Latin Christian writing of the fourth and fifth centuries CE What demands does such writing lay on a modern history of literature These are the questions asked here in view of a new literary history of patristic texts
