Reading with a Difference Arthur F. Marotti,1993 Reading with a Difference is a collection of eighteen essays that examines how issues of gender race and cultural identity inform texts from the seventeenth century to the present Together the contributions document recent significant shifts occurring in the theoretical approach to the texts they study and illustrate how shifts in each of these categories affect how the others are viewed The first section of this anthology explores the notion that identity particularly gender identity is a cultural construct The essays in the second section consider ways in which race and gender intersect with cultural identity and how encounters between different cultures challenge any identity constructed in isolation First published in the journal Criticism these essays offer no blueprint for reading Instead they encourage a rereading of canonical texts and a questioning of how these texts face matters of gender race and cultural identity how they respond to the differences and the incongruities within the cultures from which they arise and to which they speak

Adams Beck, 2021-11-05 By L Adams Beck is a fictional narrative that explores a romantic triangle involving historical figures such as Horatio Nelson and Lady Hamilton This book offers readers a rich portrayal of love and relationships set against the backdrop of historical events making it a compelling read for those interested in romance fiction and historical narratives Heartsong Janae Thorne-Bird, 2010-02 Narrative, 1999 A Fortunate Life Paddy Ashdown, 2010-09-25 Paddy Ashdown's autobiography was hailed as one of the most readable and exciting political life stories ever written of all precisely because it was so very much more This is the autobiography of an old fashioned Man of Action an adventurer to be compared more readily to Fitzroy Maclean than David Steel Ashdown's years as MP for Yeovil and leader of the Liberal Democrats pale alongside his time as a Royal Marine Commando in the Special Boat Squadron as a spy on military service in Northern Ireland and Indonesia and then subsequently perhaps his finest and most heroic role as the UN's High representative in war-torn Bosnia. As one reviewer remarked: 'This must be the first political memoir to offer advice on the best way to execute a jungle ambush and on how to treat an open wound using red ants.' Ashdown's appeal, which explains this book's hardback bestseller status, is that he transcends party political allegiances and is seen as a genuinely honest and decent man unafraid to take on the hardest challenges. The Routledge Companion to Jane Austen Cheryl A.

Ratip, 2023-09-15 The story in Ratip's debut novel revolves around the struggle of Turan Akova, who is a world-renowned pianist/composer, to prevent and eventually eliminate the extraterrestrial devil's plans to dominate the world in a shocking and most audacious way. This is a heart-pounding suspense thriller with gruelling intensity. A monumentally scary and chillingly tense story. Italian poet Tasso's words best describe Turan Akova, the hero of this novel: 'Is it possible to transform a raging, devastating, destroying hurricane into a morning breeze, a mad sea into a charming lake, and lightning into a rose? I am speaking of the Turk. The Turk who is like a ruthless hurricane, a terrific sea, and a merciless lightning when attacking his enemy; is a morning breeze and a clear lake with his friends, or when facing a disarmed enemy. To change this charming breeze into a hurricane, this resplendent blue lake into a horrid sea, this rose with its fragrance of nobility to lightning would be indeed a blunder that would offend Nature itself.' Jane Fairfax Joan Aiken, 1997-03-15 The outsider who threatens to outshine her new friend Emma in Jane Austen's classic novel of manners and romance takes on a deeper life with her own feelings and desires.
