Favorite Poems Old and New, 1957-09-01 Children are poets before they grow up and they should live with poems I hope this book will encourage them to do so Eleanor Roosevelt Beloved and treasured for over 60 years here is the only poetry collection your family needs brimming with favorite classic poems carefully selected to inspire young readers Over 700 classic and modern poems written by poets from William Shakespeare to J R R Tolkien Emily Dickinson to Langston Hughes and covering a range of favorite topics pets playtime family nature and nonsense ensure that there s a poem to please every child A truly comprehensive collection that is the ideal way of introducing children to the joys of reading poetry If your children think they don t like poetry expose them to this collection and I defy them to resist its magic Kirkus A fine book for parents to read aloud to their children Library Journal This volume stands out for the comprehensiveness of its selection The Horn Book Jenny Sockey, 2002-06-01 Wisconsin Library Bulletin, 1957 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1958 Includes Part 1 Number 1 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January December A Druid's Herbal for the Sacred Earth Year Ellen Evert Hopman, 1994-11-01 For the ancient Druids the healing and magical properties of herbs were inseparable from the larger cycles of the seasons the movements of the planets and the progression of a human life A Druid s Herbal shows the reader how to use herbs when creating rituals to celebrate festivals and significant life passages such as births house blessings weddings funerals and naming ceremonies Drawing on extensive research and a deep personal experience with Pagan traditions Ellen Evert Hopman explores the history and folklore surrounding the eight major Celtic festivals Samhain Winter Solstice Imbolc Spring Equinox Beltaine Summer Solstice Lughnasad and Fall Equinox Included in each discussion are complete instructions on the medicinal and magical uses of the herbs associated with each celebration Using these Celtic traditions as examples the author suggests ways to incorporate the symbolic and magical power of herbs into personal rituals that honor all phases of life from childbirth to last rites Also included are chapters on how to prepare herbal tinctures salves and poultices herbs used by the Druids herbal alchemy and the planets and the relationships between herbs and sacred places Filled with practical information and imaginative suggestions for using herbs for healing ceremony and magic this book is an indispensable and comprehensive guide to age old herbal practices Writing the Heavenly Frontier Denice Turner, 2011-03-10 Writing the Heavenly Frontier celebrates the early voices of the air as it examines the sky as a metaphorical and political landscape While flight histories usually focus on the physical dangers of early aviation this book introduces the figurative liabilities of ascension Early pilot writers not only grappled with an unwieldy machine they also grappled with poetics that were extremely selective Tropes that cast Charles Lindbergh as the transcendent hero of the new millennium were the same ones that kept women black Americans and indigenous peoples imaginatively tethered to the ground The most popular flight autobiographies in the United States posited a hero who rose from the mundane to the miraculous and yet the most startling autobiographies point out the social factors that limited or forbade vertical movement both literally and figuratively A survey of pilot writing the book will appeal to flight enthusiasts and people interested in American autobiography and culture But it will also appeal strongly to readers interested in the poetics and politics of place

Always Loving: A Life in Five Worlds Unknown Stephen Thiermann, 2012-04-12 Mildred Hunter Thiermann's life story and spiritual journey span multiple worlds Born a century ago in central Ontario she experienced the twentieth century as an adventure of religious exploration and political discovery The daughter of a progressive minister in the United Church of Canada Mildred's early embrace of the Quaker faith and her marriage to an American conscientious objector at the close of WW II opened her heart to transformative spiritual awakenings as she traveled from Canada to sojourns in the United States Europe New York City and finally her spiritual world Among birthright Quakers I call myself a birthright Methodist she quotes Her story reflects the quest of feminist religious seekers throughout the Western World who seek to know God through the lens of political action social justice international organization and family Edith D. Pope and Her Nashville Friends John A. Simpson, 2003 He refutes the notion that members were backward looking dilettantes and instead draws a complex portrait of women who were actively involved in a broad spectrum of civic patriotic religious educational and even reform activities As Simpson reveals this alliance of women actively shaped southern culture in the early decades of the century and his analysis sheds new light on the role of professional and club women in southern history
