Dorothy Sterling's Mary Jane to novels that engage less obvious legacies of desegregation such as Cynthia Voigt's Dicey's Song Sharon Flake's Pinned Virginia Hamilton's The Planet of Junior Brown and Louis Sachar's Holes This book will be of interest to scholars of American studies children's literature and educational philosophy and history When Friendship Followed Me Home Paul Griffin, 2017-07-18 If you have middle schoolers who are too young to fully grasp John Green's The Fault in Our Stars and love dogs give them this sweet tearjerker School Library Journal In this beguiling tearjerker a foster kid's luck slowly changes after he befriends a scruffy pup he finds outside the library People magazine Ben Coffin has never been one for making friends As a former foster kid he knows people can up and leave without so much as a goodbye Ben prefers to spend his time with the characters in his favorite sci fi books until he rescues an abandoned mutt from the alley next door to the Coney Island Library Scruffy little Flip leads Ben to befriend a fellow book lover named Halley yes like the comet a girl unlike anyone he has ever met Ben begins thinking of her as Rainbow Girl because of her crazy colored clothes and her laugh pure magic the kind that makes you smile away the stormiest day Rainbow Girl convinces Ben to write a novel with her But as their story unfolds Ben's life begins to unravel and Ben must discover for himself the truth about friendship and the meaning of home Racism in Contemporary African American Children's and Young Adult Literature Suriyan Panlay, 2016-10-25 Applying critical race theory to contemporary African American children's and young adult literature this book explores one key racial issue that has been overlooked both in race studies and literary scholarship internalised racism By systematically examining the issue of internalised racism and its detrimental psychological effects particularly towards the young and vulnerable this book defamiliarises the very racial issue that otherwise has become normalised in American racial discourse reaffirming the relevance of race racism and racialisation in contemporary America Through readings of works by Jacqueline Woodson Sharon G Flake Tanita S Davis Sapphire Rosa Guy and Nikki Grimes Suriyan Panlay develops a new critical discourse on internalised racism by studying its effects on marginalised children its manifestations and the fictional narrative strategies that can be used to regain and reclaim a sense of self Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom Dorothy Littlejohn Guthrie, 2011-09-14 In this book African American literature is illuminated through a project based curriculum that incorporates national curriculum standards It is important that the school curriculae be representative of the diversity of the American student population Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom is designed to help teachers and librarians achieve that goal The book recommends and annotates more than 200 titles that touch on African American life from slavery through the present time most of them by black authors and many of them winners of the Coretta Scott King Caldecott and or Newbery awards This guide offers cross curricular lesson plans for grades K 12 Each chapter identifies areas in which instructional attention is most needed to help students develop a greater appreciation for diversity perseverance and ethnicity Examples and ideas for activities are offered to reinforce related concepts With this book teachers and librarians will be better able to motivate and inform helping
