Feb Mar 2015 Memo:

Memorandum ,1927 Code of Federal Regulations ,2017 Marriage Migration in Asia Sari K. Ishii,2016-02-26
Men are disadvantaged in the marriage markets of many Asian countries and in some cases their response is to look abroad for a partner Receiving countries for marriage migrants include Japan Korea Taiwan Hong Kong and Singapore while the Philippines Thailand Vietnam Indonesia and parts of mainland China supply wives to these territories In the absence of uniform international regulations concerning the rights and obligations of partners such unions are treated differently in different jurisdiction In extreme cases migrants or their children become stateless and when marriages break down migrants sometimes face major legal problems In such circumstances marriage migrants are often portrayed as powerless uneducated victims Rejecting this perspective the authors in this volume explore the agency of women who migrate abroad to acquire opportunities unavailable to them in their homelands They show that the trajectories of marriage migrants are often not a simple movement from home to destination but can involve return repeated or extended migrations and that these transitions that can alter geographies of power in economics nationality or ethnicity Based on features shared by many marriage migrants the book identifies them as an emerging minority at the frontier of the nation state a group whose status may well carry over to future generations , Memorandum ,1938 International Financial Statistics, September 2016
