

Federal Government	Unitary Government
(1) There are two or more levels of governments e.g., National, State and Local governments. (2) There is division of powers between different levels of governments. (3) State governments are not answerable to the Central or National government. (4) Jurisdiction of each government i.e., state and central is specified in the constitution and cannot be changed unilaterally. (5) Constitutional amendment cannot be made without the consent of the state governments. (6) Courts such as Supreme Court of India safeguards and interprets the Constitution. (7) Sources of revenue are divided among different levels of government. (8) It has two objectives – to safeguard and promote unity of the country. Secondly to accommodate regional diversity. So there should be trust and agreement to live together	(1) Generally, there is only one level of government. In case of sub-units, they are subordinate to the national government. (2) There is no division of powers. The Central or National government has all the powers. (3) The state governments or sub-units are answerable to the Central government. (4) All powers are with the Central government. There is no separate jurisdiction for the sub-units. The Central government can grant them powers and take back at any time. (5) The Central government alone can make constitutional amendment like an ordinary law. (6) Courts do not enjoy powers of safeguarding/interpreting the constitution. (7) Sources of revenue are controlled by the Central government. (8) There is no such objective as there is only one government that controls the whole country.
