selection Mutual Funds and Exchange-Traded Funds H. Kent Baker,Greg Filbeck,Halil Kiymaz,2015-10-21 Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds Building Blocks to Wealth offers a synthesis of the theoretical and empirical literature primarily on mutual funds but also discusses related investment vehicles especially ETFs In this edited volume noted scholars and practitioners write chapters in their areas of expertise It interweaves the contributions of multiple authors into an authoritative overview of important but selective topics Readers will gain an in depth understanding of mutual funds and ETFs from experts from around the world Based on research based evidence this is not intended to be a how to book instead it is a scholarly and in depth approach to important investment subjects Although the book places greater attention on these different types of investments in the United States it also examines them in a global context In today s financial environment mutual funds and ETFs are dynamic areas that continue to evolve at a rapid pace Because the flow of materials on the subject is voluminous this book by necessity must be selective because it cannot cover every aspect of this field However readers can gain important insights about each investment vehicle including its structure and uses performance and measurement Beyond these core topics and issues the book also examines the latest trends cutting edge developments and real world situations Given its broad scope this practical and comprehensive book should appeal to investors investment professionals academics and others interested in mutual funds and ETFs In particular this book should help investors make key asset allocation decisions while capturing the benefits of a highly diversified well constructed lower cost portfolio of complementary strategies that enhance financial wealth Designing a Sustainable Financial System Thomas Walker,Stéfanie D. Kibsey,Rohan Crichton,2018-01-22 This edited collection brings together leading theoretical and applied research with the intent to design a sustainable global financial future The contributors argue that our world cannot move toward sustainability address climate change reverse environmental degradation and improve human well being without aligning the financial system with sustainable development goals like those outlined by the United Nations Such a system would a be environmentally and socially responsible b align with planetary boundaries c manage natural resources sustainably d avoid doing more harm than good and e be resilient and adaptable to changing conditions The overarching theme in this collection of chapters is a response to the worldwide supranational sustainable finance discussions about how we can transition to a new socio ecological system where finance human well being and planetary health are recognized as being highly intertwined

Resistance to Changes in Financial Reporting Standards Edel Lemus,2016-08-17 This book investigates current resistance to the ongoing change from US Generally Accepted Accounting Principles GAAP to International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS 138 countries have thus far adopted IFRS as a singular accounting language while the Securities and Exchange Commission SEC the Financial Accounting Standard Board FASB and the International Accounting Standard Board IASB have determined that IFRS should be adopted optionally in the United States by 2016 The book shows that IFRS should act as a singular accounting language which will promote high transparency and a better economic position in the world financial market

Creating the Social Venture Susan Coleman,Dafna Kariv,2015-08-20 Social entrepreneurship is a growing area and we frequently hear of new ventures committed to social change In academia however social entrepreneurship has typically been taught as a version of entrepreneurship ignoring the unique structure challenges and goals of the social venture In their new book Coleman and Kariv draw on the latest theory and research to provide boundaries to the definition of social entrepreneurship discussing both what it is and what it is not The book answers several key questions Who are social entrepreneurs What is the process for identifying and solving a social need What are the differences between for profit and not for profit social ventures What is the role of innovation How do we develop high performing firms How do we measure success The focus on context allows students to appreciate how social entrepreneurship develops and operates in different countries and cultures lending a global perspective to the book Combined with rich pedagogy and a companion website it provides students with all the learning tools they need to grasp this important subject Global Mergers and Acquisitions Abdol S. Soofi, Yuqin Zhang, 2018-03-19 This book primarily deals with corporate restructuring through mergers and acquisitions. It critically examines all functions that must be performed in completing an M A transaction. Domestic and crossborder M A s are very similar in many respects even though differences between them also exist. The book includes discussions of international finance and multinational financial management the topics that arise in cross border M A transactions. Given the increasing importance of China as the second largest economy in the world and Chinese companies growing merger and acquisition M A activities globally we devote the last two chapters of the book to China s outward foreign direct investment and cross border M A activities. Moreover the second volume includes the case studies regarding Chinese foreign direct investment both in Greenfield and acquisition forms give additional insights into challenging tasks of due diligence and post merger cultural integration that foreign investors face. The M A literature is a fragmented field of inquiry. This book brings together important practical insights from this vast literature in a short but cohesive form that has high managerial relevance Sport Finance Gil Fried, Timothy D.
