Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country ,1830 Studies in Educational Learning Environments Swee Chiew

Goh, Myint Swe Khine, 2002 The study of classroom and school learning environments and their effects on students learning has been going on for more than a century Past efforts in the study of the learning environment and its determinants have indicated that it plays a major role in improving teaching and learning in primary secondary and higher education This book covers various dimensions of the learning environment its underlying theory the impact on learning the curriculum and classroom management It is organized in such a way as to provide a cross national and multi cultural forum for presenting and discussing research findings as well as development and applications of various techniques and instruments in learning environment research Publish and Perish: The Practice of Censorship in the British Isles in the Early Modern Period

Isabelle Fernandes, 2020-10-06 The development of printing practices during Tudor rule led both to the dissemination of religious and secular knowledge and the development of a legal arsenal to control it While the vast majority of studies on censorship regard it as being at the origin of the notion of authorship critics tend to disagree on its actual influence on early modern writings Who among the Church and the secular state were its main supporters Did it aim at destroying or removing punishing or protecting hampering or regulating Did it propagate a culture of secrecy or on the contrary did it help to circulate new ideas and knowledge by controlling them and making them more acceptable to the masses If the answers to these questions are bound to differ according to the aesthetic and religious biases of both censors and censored they all lead to one major point of debate did censorship really work to stop some marginal threat or did it simply improve the lot of early modern writers who turned its limited negative effects into a comforting shield of self publicity By suggesting it suppressed neither artistic creativity nor subversive practices this volume analyses censorship in Britain and Ireland during the Tudor and Stuart periods as an instrument of regulation rather than a repressive tool Ideal for both graduate students and general readers interested in Early Modern History the work sheds new light on a topic as fascinating as it is often misunderstood

In Search of the True Gypsy Wim Willems, 2014-01-14 It has only been recognised tardily and with reluctance that during the Second World War hundreds of thousands of itinerants met the same horrendous fate as Jews and other victims of Nazism Gypsies appear to appeal to the imagination simply as social outcasts and scapegoats or in a flattering but no more illuminating light as romantic outsiders In this study contemporary notions about Gypsies are traced back as far as possible to their roots in an attempt to lay bare why stigmatisation of gypsies or rather groups labelled as such has continued from the distant past even to today The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1896

Community Translation Mustapha Taibi, Uldis Ozolins, 2016-02-25 Investigating an important field within translation studies Community Translation addresses the specific context characteristics and needs of translation in and for communities

Traditional classifications in the fields of discourse and genre are of limited use to the field of translation studies as they overlook the social functions of translation. Instead, this book argues for a classification that cuts across traditional lines based on the social dimensions of translation and the relationships between text producers and audiences. Community Translation discusses the different types of texts produced by public authorities, services, and individuals for communities that need to be translated into minority languages and the socio-cultural issues that surround them. In this way, this book demonstrates the vital role that community translation plays in ensuring communication with all citizens and in the empowerment of minority language speakers by giving them access to information enabling them to participate fully in society.

The American School Board Journal, 1907 Museum of Foreign Literature and Science Robert Walsh, Eliakim Littell, John Jay Smith, 1827 Saturday Review, 1860 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1860 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance, 1860 Text, Speech, and Dialogue Elmar Nöth, Aleš Horák, Petr Sojka, 2024-08-31 The two volume set LNAI 15048 and 15049 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 27th International Conference on Text Speech and Dialogue TSD 2024 held in Brno, Czech Republic during September 9-13, 2024. The 50 revised full papers presented in these deadline proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected from 103 submissions. The papers are organized in the following topical sections: Part I Text, Part II Speech Dialogue.

Developing Translation Competence Christina Schäffner, Beverly Adab, 2000-10-15 This volume presents a comprehensive study of what constitutes Translation Competence from the various sub-competences to the overall skill. Contributors combine experience as translation scholars with their experience as teachers of translation. The volume is organized into three sections: Defining, Building, and Assessing Translation Competence. The chapters offer insights into the nature of translation competence and its place in the translation training programme in an academic environment and show how theoretical considerations have contributed to defining, building, and assessing translation competence, offering practical examples of how this can be achieved. The first section introduces major sub-competences including linguistic, cultural, textual, subject research, and transfer competence. The second section presents issues relating to course design, methodology, and teaching practice. The third section reflects on criteria for quality assessment.

The English and Empire Digest, 1919 Sanatana Dharma and Plantation Hinduism (Second Edition Volume 1) Ramesh Gampat, 2020-01-06 Christian missionaries worked hard to convert immigrants. Their first order of business was to denigrate Hinduism, designate Hindus as heathen, and disparage their culture, food, and even attire. Immigrants stubbornly resisted, led by the tiny educated elite including Brahmins. Conversion was a failure at least up to the end of the 19th century but picked up a self-generating momentum thereafter. The result is that the share of Hindus in Guyana's Indian population declined from 83.5 percent in 1880 to 62.8 percent in 2012. The largest portion of the contraction was lost to Christianity. The loss notwithstanding, even a casual observer would conclude that Guyanese Hindus at home and in the
