Corpora, Constructions, New Englishes Samantha Laporte, 2021-06-15 This book takes an integrated approach to the fields of Corpus Linguistics Construction Grammar and World Englishes through a thorough constructional and corpus based examination of the patterning of the versatile high frequency verb make in British English and New Englishes It contributes to Construction Grammar theory by adopting a verb based rather than construction based perspective on argument structure This allows the probing of the interface between verb independent generalizations and item specificity from an underexplored angle that offers new insights into the shape of the construction From a variationist perspective it seeks to identify features of New Englishes and gauge whether these features exhibit traces of conventionalization and ii assess whether the degree of institutionalization of the New Englishes correlates with linguistic behavior both from a social and cognitive perspective thereby contributing to the budding effort to integrate the cognitive and social dimensions into the modeling of linguistic variation in World Englishes English Biography Waldo Hilary Dunn, 1916 Modern Language Quarterly , 1902 The Publisher , 1906
