Building Sustainable Peace Arnim Langer, Graham K. Brown, 2016-06-16 Countries emerging from civil war or protracted violence often face the daunting challenge of rebuilding their economy while simultaneously creating the political and social conditions for a stable peace The implicit assumption in the international community that rapid political democratisation along with economic liberalisation holds the key to sustainable peace is belied by the experiences of countries such as Iraq and Afghanistan Often the challenges of post conflict reconstruction revolve around the timing and sequencing of different reform that may have contradictory implications Drawing on a range of thematic studies and empirical cases this book examines how post conflict reconstruction policies can be better sequenced in order to promote sustainable peace The book provides evidence that many reforms that are often thought to be imperative in post conflict societies may be better considered as long term objectives and that the immediate imperative for such societies should be people centred policies

From Crawley to Carlisle Chris Upfield, 2017-01-11 From Crawley to Carlisle A Trawl Around League Two invites readers to join the author Chris Upfield and the friends and family who accompany him to far flung places in the pursuit of football happiness in this semi autobiographical experience of the life of a lower league football supporter Chris writes a sardonic and often hilarious examination of modern football culture from the players supporters and songs to the grounds and lower league hospitality The reader can experience the nostalgia of flashbacks to the 60s 70s and 80s from ice cream soda to subbuteo and laugh at the writer s middle aged frustrations at the vagaries of everything from train journeys to motorway gantries In addition to this the reader is taken to cities of culture like York Oxford and Cambridge and the less celebrated Carlisle Mansfield and Crawley Alongside this football theme Chris also gives his own observations of modern life more generally Inspired by Louis de Berni res and Bill Bryson From Crawley to Carlisle A Trawl Around League Two takes football away days as its theme and will appeal to football fans The book is also a compendium of the author's quirky imagination upon modern culture and the things which trigger those thoughts along the way It will suit readers of autobiographical and observational works with a similar cynical sense of humour and a passing interest in football

Why Women Need Quotas Vicky Pryce, 2015-03-24 Vicky Pryce's motorbike riding mother wanted to study physics at university but her family told her it was impossible for a woman She was determined that her daughter would have the opportunities she hadn't and the young Vicky went on to forge a glittering career as an economist with high profile posts spanning business academia and government But despite her own success Pryce is still frustrated by the obstacles littering the paths of women in the workplace We have an abysmal record on gender parity Rwanda and Laos have more women in Parliament than Britain does Massive pay gaps prevail across the professions Senior positions are male dominated in all walks of life and not only at board level Discrimination a lack of role models and unconscious bias are all barriers to women climbing the career ladder and that s even before counting the professional cost of starting a family This isn t just a question of equality for women by failing to remove the barriers to female progression we re starving the UK of the talent it needs to grow and prosper to its full potential Ultimately Pryce argues there is only one solution women need quotas
