Get Well Soon My Un Brilliant Career As A Nurse:

Get Well Soon! Kristy Chambers, 2012 Falling into the nursing profession Kristy Chambers spent almost a decade working with a wide range of people ranging from drug addicts to cancer patients Dark humorous honest and compassionate this memoir illustrates the incredible work nurses do and the many challenges they face A tribute to the wonderfully brave people Chambers met during her career this book portrays both joyous and difficult experiences Paradoxes in Nurses' Identity, Culture and Image Margaret McAllister, Donna Brien, 2020-01-29 This book examines some of the more disturbing representations of nurses in popular culture to understand nursing's complex identities challenges and future directions It critically analyses disquieting representations of nurses who don't care who kill who inspire fear or who do not comply with laws and policies Also addressed are stories about how power is used as well as supernatural experiences in nursing Using a series of examples taken from popular culture ranging from film television and novels to memoirs and true crime podcasts it interrogates the meaning of the shadow side of nursing and the underlying paradoxes that influence professional identity Iconic nursing figures are still powerful today Decades after they were first created Ratched and Annie Wilkes continue to make readers and viewers shudder at the prospect of ever being ill Modern storytelling modes are bringing to audiences the grim reality that some nurses are members of the working poor like Cath Hardacre in Trust Me and others can be dangerous con artists like the nurse in Dirty John This book is important reading for all those interested in understanding the links between nursing's image and the profession's potential as an agent for change It's Not You, Geography, It's Me Kristy Chambers, 2014-10-01 In this hilarious and brutally honest memoir about mental illness and depression Kristy Chambers goes in search of greener grass and finds that if she could only cut her head off she would probably enjoy travel and life For someone who hates exercise Kristy Chambers is pretty good at running away and coming back again when her credit cards are declined She's not so much an international jetsetter as a loose cannon with a passport So in the manner of Eat Pray Love a privileged white girl takes her privileged white arse on the road in an attempt to find happiness With a family history of mental illness that goes back generations and a complicated long term relationship with depression will eating all the pasta in Italy help her to find the silver lining she's looking for Of course it won't It's pasta not magic beans Joined by the most unreliable travel companion of them all her mental health Kristy openly honestly and humorously recounts their adventures together Honeysuckle Joel F.
