Aspects of You Cicci Lyckow Bäckman, 2021-04-18 In this book you learn to discern between thoughts emotions and instinctive impulses Often we get them confused which can create misunderstandings frustration and inner or outer conflicts But the problems only occur because we have not learned to meet and process these different signals for what they are The book was originally written to fill a void in the Enneagram literature

but it is useful whether we know about the personality types or not With clear explanations descriptive examples and practical exercises the reader is given a first hand experience of the inner resources discussed and is guided step by step on the path to a life with greater presence awareness and freedom Cicci Lyckow B ckman has been a dedicated student of the Enneagram for many years but in this beautiful and accessible book she steps into teaching the true heart and soul of the Enneagram work There are many places now where we can read descriptions of the nine types but Cicci goes beyond this by inviting us into the core teachings for developing ourselves through our Enneagram type The aptly named Aspects of you reveals to us the inner drives and mechanics behind each of the nine types through an exploration of the Centers of Intelligence She describes the sense and function of the Centers but also offers advice on how to better express them and balance our lives through them You can tell from her friendly and steady guidance that Cicci has really lived these teachings and so she conveys them with a freshness and intimacy rare in writings on this subject I am truly grateful to see her bringing this marvelous book into the Enneagram conversation and highly recommend it to anyone seeking to engage in real inner work Russ Hudson author of The Enneagram Nine Gateways to Presence and co author of The Wisdom of the Enneagram
