Therapeutic Exercise

First, after a short meditation exercise while in a relaxed state the individual is ready to begin.

Next, with the eyes closed the participant is asked to keep notice of how the body feels. Starting from the feet and moving up, the individual takes inventory of any sensations, tensions, or pains etc. within any specific areas.

Lastly, using colored drawing materials, the participant is asked to translate those experiences onto the body template by filling the outline in with varied lines, colors and shapes.
