Finnish Communism Under Soviet Totalitarianism Jukka Paastela, 2003      Politics in China James Roger Townsend, 1980      Men Beyond Desire David Greven, 2005-09-02 This book explores the construction of male sexuality in nineteenth century American literature and comes up with some startling findings Far from desiring heterosexual sex and wishing to bond with other men through fraternity the male protagonists of classic American literature mainly want to be left alone Greven makes the claim that American men eschewing both marriage and male friendship strive to remain emotionally and sexually inviolate Examining the work of traditional authors Hawthorne Poe Melville Cooper Irving Stowe Greven discovers highly untraditional and transgressive representations of desire and sexuality Objects of desire from both women and other men the inviolate males discussed in this study overturn established gendered and sexual categories just as this study overturns archetypal assumptions about American manhood and American literature      Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1970      LIFE , 1954-02-08 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use      The Quantum and the Lotus Matthieu Ricard, Trinh Xuan Thuan, 2009-02-04 Matthieu Ricard trained as a molecular biologist working in the lab of a Nobel prize winning scientist but when he read some Buddhist philosophy he became drawn to Buddhism Eventually he left his life in science to study with Tibetan teachers and he is now a Buddhist monk and translator for the Dalai Lama living in the Shechen monastery near Kathmandu in Nepal Trinh Thuan was born into a Buddhist family in Vietnam but became intrigued by the explosion of discoveries in astronomy during the 1960s He made his way to the prestigious California Institute of Technology to study with some of the biggest names in the field and is now an acclaimed astrophysicist and specialist on how the galaxies formed When Matthieu Ricard and Trinh Thuan met at an academic conference in the summer of 1997 they began discussing the many remarkable connections between the teachings of Buddhism and the findings of recent science That conversation grew into an astonishing correspondence exploring a series of fascinating questions Did the universe have a beginning Or is our universe one in a series of infinite universes with no end and no beginning Is the concept of a beginning of time fundamentally flawed Might our perception of time in fact be an illusion a phenomenon created in our brains that has no ultimate reality Is the stunning fine tuning of the universe which has produced just the right conditions for life to evolve a sign that a principle of creation is at work in our world If such a principle of creation undergirds the workings of the universe what does that tell us about whether or not there is a divine Creator How does the radical interpretation of reality offered by quantum physics conform to and yet differ from the Buddhist conception of reality What is consciousness and how did it evolve Can consciousness exist apart from a brain generating it The stimulating journey of discovery the authors traveled in their discussions is re created beautifully in The

Quantum and the Lotus written in the style of a lively dialogue between friends Both the fundamental teachings of Buddhism and the discoveries of contemporary science are introduced with great clarity and the reader will be profoundly impressed by the many correspondences between the two streams of thought and revelation Through the course of their dialogue the authors reach a remarkable meeting of minds ultimately offering a vital new understanding of the many ways in which science and Buddhism confirm and complement each other and of the ways in which as Matthieu Ricard writes knowledge of our spirits and knowledge of the world are mutually enlightening and empowering
