Exposing the "Culture of Arrogance" in the Academy Gail L. Thompson, Angela C. Louque, 2023-07-12 There generally remains a gulf between the way most Black faculty perceive the racial climate at their institutions and the recognition by non Black faculty and administrators that there are problems and that these perceptions have merit This book is intended to promote a productive dialogue This book weaves the authors own experiences with the responses of 136 Black faculty to a questionnaire and a smaller sample who were interviewed to identify the factors that determine Black faculty s satisfaction or dissatisfaction with their jobs and institutions Recurring themes underscore the importance of a supportive work environment that is built on mutual respect full inclusion in the decision making process and an institutional climate that does not tolerate cultural insensitivity or racism The qualitative and quantitative information and the authors conclusions can help postsecondary institutions improve Black faculty satisfaction levels and ultimately retention rates This book will resonate with any Black faculty who have felt frustrated enough to consider leaving a postsecondary institution and with those who are content at their current institutions For non Black faculty and for administrators of all races the book illuminates the sources of job satisfaction and dissatisfaction explains the reasons their Black colleagues leave or stay and offers valuable recommendations for change For anyone at any level interested in the issue of the racial climate at his or her institution this book offers a constructive framework for discussion and action
