century Haitian thought including a detailed timeline of important moments in the intellectual history that connects Haiti to France and the United States The first part of the book is about global dispossessions in the first decades of the twentieth century the second part points to how the narratives of Haiti are intimately linked to a Franco U S American discursive space constructed over the course of the twentieth century a discursive order that has conflated the representation of Haiti with an understanding of Vodou primarily as an occult religion and not as a philosophical system The third and fourth parts of the book examine how the novels of Ren Depestre Jean Claude Fignol and Kettly Mars have revisited the notion of possession since the fall of the Duvalier dictatorships
