The Projection Designer's Toolkit Jeromy Hopgood, 2021-12-22 The Projection Designer's Toolkit is an insider's guide to the world of professional projection design serving as a reference for the planning and execution of each step in the projection design process. The text addresses the design process within the context of a professional projection designer's workflow focusing on specific tools of the trade, best practices for communicating your design to collaborators, tips and tricks, determining budget, working with assistants, and more. Featuring interviews with some of the top names in the industry, the book offers an unprecedented insight into the professional projection designer's process across a wide range of fields from Broadway and regional theatre to corporate design and music touring. The book also includes in-depth discussion on production process, system design, cue and content planning, content design, digital media fundamentals, media servers, video equipment, and projection surfaces. Additionally, it features hundreds of full-color photos and examples of designer artifacts such as draftings, mock-ups, paperwork, cue sheets, and renderings. Filled with practical advice that will guide readers from landing their first job all the way through opening night and beyond, The Projection Designer's Toolkit is the perfect resource for emerging projection designers and students in Digital Media Design and Projection Design courses.

Theatre in the Dark Adam Alston, Martin Welton, 2017-08-10 Theatre in the Dark: Shadow, Gloom, and Blackout in Contemporary Theatre responds to a rising tide of experimentation in theatre practice that eliminates or obscures light. It brings together leading and emerging practitioners and researchers in a volume dedicated to exploring the phenomenon and showcasing a range of possible critical and theoretical approaches. This book considers the aesthetics and phenomenology of dark, gloomy, and shadow-strewn theatre performances as well as the historical and cultural significances of darkness, shadow, and the night in theatre and performance contexts. It is concerned as much with the experiences elicited by darkness and obscured or diminished lighting as it is with the conditions that define frame and at times re-shape what each might mean and do. Contributors provide surveys of relevant practice, interviews with practitioners, theoretical reflections, and close critical analyses of work by key innovators in the aesthetics of light, shadow, and darkness. The book has a particular focus on the work of contemporary theatre makers including Sound Fury, David Rosenberg, and Glen Neath. Lundahl, Seidl, Extant, and Analogue, and seeks to deepen the engagement of theatre and performance studies with what might be called the sensory turn. Theatre in the Dark explores ground-breaking areas that will appeal to researchers, practitioners, and audiences alike.
