Medieval Worlds Jo Ann Hoepfner Moran Cruz, Richard A. Gerberding, 2004 This text designed for use in one and two term medieval history courses is based on a political framework that includes social and cultural history It emphasizes both high and popular culture exploring what life was like in the court the city the countryside and academia The text primarily focuses on Europe but also gives extensive attention to the areas that affected Europe such as Byzantium and the Islamic world National Union Catalog ,1956 Includes entries for maps and atlases The National Union Catalog 1956 through 1967 ,1970 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1998 Paperbound Books in Print ,1982 Books in Print Supplement ,1988 The Medieval World Peter Linehan, Janet Laughland Nelson, 2001 This groundbreaking collection brings the Middle Ages to life and conveys the distinctiveness of this diverse constantly changing period Thirty eight scholars bring together one medieval world from many disparate worlds from Connacht to Constantinople and from Tynemouth to Timbuktu This extraordinary set of reconstructions presents the reader with a vivid re drawing of the medieval past offering fresh appraisals of the evidence and modern historical writing Chapters are thematically linked in four sections identities beliefs social values and symbolic order power and power structures elites organizations and groups Packed full of original scholarship The Medieval World is essential reading for anyone studying medieval history The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1993 The Medieval World View William Robert Cook, Ronald B. Herzman, 1983 The Medieval World View 2 e is an engaging introduction to the people places and ideas that shaped the intellectual world of the Middle Ages The book presents the presuppositions of medieval society in a systematic fashion by integrating brief self contained selections from primary texts and carefully captioned photographs into a narrative of the medieval world and its foundations The text is divided into three parts Treating both the classical and biblical antecedents of the Middle Ages and ending in Late Antiquity Part 1 includes a thorough discussion of the monumental figure of St Augustine Part 2 deals with the early Middle Ages beginning with the disintegration of the Roman Empire and continuing through the German invasions the sixth and seventh century founders and the renaissance associated with the reign of Charlemagne Part 3 examines the High Middle Ages and beyond following developments in the Church in politics and in arts and culture from the twelfth century through the end of the fourteenth century This second edition has been thoroughly updated to reflect recent scholarship in the field It adds a new chapter covering the fourteenth century and pays greater attention to women and gender related issues The bibliography has been updated and revised and now provides a useful guide to electronic resources The Medieval World View 2 e handles sophisticated issues with great clarity and ease making this an ideal text for courses in medieval history literature or art history Book jacket Introduction to Medieval Europe 300-1500 Wim Blockmans, Peter Hoppenbrouwers, 2014-02-03 Introduction to Medieval Europe 300 1500 provides a comprehensive survey of this complex and varied formative period of European history Covering themes as diverse as barbarian migrations the impact of Christianization the formation of nations and states the emergence of an expansionist commercial economy the growth of cities the Crusades the effects of plague and the intellectual and cultural life of the Middle Ages the book explores the driving forces behind the formation of medieval society and the directions in which it developed and changed In doing this the authors cover a wide geographic expanse including Western interactions with the Byzantine Empire and the Islamic World Now in full colour this second edition contains a wealth of new features that help to bring this fascinating era to life including A detailed timeline of the period putting key events into context Primary source case boxes Full colour illustrations throughout New improved maps A glossary of terms Annotated suggestions for further reading The book is supported by a free companion website with resources including for instructors assignable discussion questions and all of the images and maps in the book available to download and for students a comparative interactive timeline of the period and links to useful websites The website can be found at www.routledge.com/cw/blockmans Clear and stimulating the second edition of Introduction to Medieval Europe is the ideal companion to studying Europe in the Middle Ages at undergraduate level The Medieval World Friedrich Heer, 1974 Worlds of Medieval Europe Clifford R. Backman, 2011-12-05 The Birth of Europe Jacques Le Goff, 2009-02-04 In this ground breaking new study Jacques Le Goff arguably the leading medievalist of his generation presents his view of the primacy of the Middle Ages in the development of European history A superb and necessary book This provocative assessment from a lifetime of scholarship might help us to place ourselves not just territorially but in that other precious element of history time The Guardian A book that never fails to be informative readable and provocative Le Goff has been the bravest and best of champions for medieval history This book is in every sense an inspiration BBC History Magazine Praised by prominent figures in Europe and history including Rt Hon Christopher Patten CH Former Member of the European Commission and Neil Kinnock Vice President European Commission

The Worlds of Medieval Europe Clifford R. Backman, 2014 Deftly written and beautifully illustrated The Worlds of Medieval Europe Third Edition presents a distinctive and nuanced portrayal of the Greater West during its medieval millennium By integrating the histories of the Islamic and Byzantine worlds into the main narrative author Clifford R. Backman offers an insightful detailed and often witty look at the continuum of interaction social cultural intellectual and commercial that existed among all three societies This compelling volume surpasses traditional textbook representations of the Middle Ages by balancing the conventional focus on political affairs especially those of northern Europe with equally detailed attention to medieval society as it developed in the Mediterranean In addition Backman describes the ways in which the medieval Latin West attempted to understand the unified and rational structure of the human cosmos which they believed existed beneath the observable diversity and disorder of the world This effort to recreate a human ordering of unity through diversity provides an essential key to understanding medieval Europe and the ways in which it regarded and reacted to the worlds around it Medieval Worlds Roberta Anderson, Dominic Aidan Bellenger, 2003 A comprehensive sourcebook for the study of western Europe from the 5th to the 15th century      Introduction to Medieval Europe 300-1500 Wim Blockmans, Peter Hoppenbrouwers, 2023 This book provides a survey of this complex period of European history covering themes such as the impact of Christianisation the formation of nations and states the emergence of an expansionist commercial economy the Crusades and the intellectual and cultural life of the Middle Ages      A Companion to the Medieval World Carol Lansing, Edward D. English, 2012-12-26 Drawing on the expertise of 26 distinguished scholars this important volume covers the major issues in the study of medieval Europe highlighting the significant impact the time period had on cultural forms and institutions central to European identity Examines changing approaches to the study of medieval Europe its periodization and central themes Includes coverage of important questions such as identity and the self sexuality and gender emotionality and ethnicity as well as more traditional topics such as economic and demographic expansion kingship and the rise of the West Explores Europe's understanding of the wider world to place the study of the medieval society in a global context      A History of Medieval Europe R.H.C. Davis, 2013-08-16 R C Davis provided the classic account of the European medieval world equipping generations of undergraduate and A level students with sufficient grasp of the period to debate diverse historical perspectives and reputations His book has been important grounding for both modernists required to take a course in medieval history and those who seek to specialise in the medieval period In updating this classic work to a third edition the additional author now enables students to see history in action the diverse viewpoints and important research that has been undertaken since Davis second edition and progressed historical understanding Each of Davis original chapters now concludes with a new directions and developments section by Professor RI Moore Emeritus of Newcastle University A key work updated in a method that both enhances subject understanding and sets important research in its wider context A vital resource now up to date for generations of historians to come      The Medieval Millennium A. Daniel Frankforter, 1999 A core text for introductory courses on Medieval History or Medieval Europe or a supplement for survey courses in Western Civilization World Civilizations or for literature and art history courses that deal with the medieval period Using a fresh lively narrative this innovative history of medieval Europe provides a coherent description of the chaotic but compelling era It focuses but not narrowly on the history of Europe from the fifth through the fifteenth centuries setting the subject in the broader context of world events It explains complex issues e.g philosophy scholasticism etc clearly and illuminates large issues by showing how they manifested themselves intimately and directly in the lives of memorable individuals
