II the development of sales management transformed an economy populated by peddlers and canvassers to one driven by professional salesmen and executives From book agents flogging Ulysses S Grant s memoirs to John H Patterson s famous pyramid strategy at National Cash Register to the determined efforts by Ford and Chevrolet to craft surefire sales pitches for their dealers selling evolved from an art to a science Salesmanship as a term and a concept arose around the turn of the century paralleling the new science of mass production Managers assembled professional forces of neat responsible salesmen who were presented as hardworking pillars of society no longer the butt of endless traveling salesmen jokes People became prospects their homes became territories As an NCR representative said the modern salesman let the light of reason into dark places The study of selling itself became an industry producing academic disciplines devoted to marketing consumer behavior and industrial psychology At Carnegie Mellon s Bureau of Salesmanship Research Walter Dill Scott studied the characteristics of successful salesmen and ways to motivate consumers to buy Full of engaging portraits and
