EVENT PROPOSAL – MUSICAL PERFORMANCE

The Botanic Gardens of Adelaide continues to encourage the performance of music within the Gardens and therefore has a commitment to excellence, innovation and diversity in-keeping with the environmental and horticultural significance of the site.

In an effort to facilitate musical performance applications the following standards should be considered when making a submission.

Musical performance proposals will be judged on the following criteria:

- Standard of excellence and innovation
- Integrity of work
- Relevance and appropriateness of work to the site
- Consistency with the Gardens' current objectives and environmental policies
- Consideration of public safety and access to the site
- Consideration of maintenance and durability
- Evidence of a funding source and satisfactory budget
- Project timeline

Your application will be considered depending on the nature of the proposed performance and the approval process may also involve, but is not limited to, further discussions with the artist/s and an impact assessment to be conducted by Garden staff.

Sufficient time should be allocated when submitting your proposal as additional requirements may extend the approval time. This could impact upon other tasks involved with your submission such as grant applications or marketing plans.

Please note that Letters of Support will not be supplied for funding applications until after the proposal has been approved. Submission of an application in the first instance is not a guarantee of approval.

What theological message is really conveyed in these songs? In this book Robert Beckford shows how the Black British contemporary gospel music tradition is in crisis because its songs continue to be informed by colonial Christian ideas about God. Beckford explores the failure of both African and African Caribbean heritage Churches to decolonise their faith, especially the doctrine of God, biblical interpretation and Black ontology. This predicament has left song leaders, musicians and songwriters with a reservoir of ideas that aim to disavow engagement with the social historical world, black Biblical interpretation and the necessity of loving blackness. This book is decolonisation through praxis. Reflecting on the conceptual social justice album The Jamaican Bible Remix 2017 as a communicative resource, Beckford shows how to develop production tools to inscribe decolonial theological thought onto Black British music. The outcome of this process is the creation of a decolonial contemporary gospel music genre. The impact of the album is demonstrated through case studies in national and international contexts.
