Challenged Lovers Fadzai Zimunya, 2013-11-21 This is a book about the power of love over all else Both Danai and Fadzai are first born children and expectations were understandably very high The central message here is that parents need to impart all they believe their offspring need to get and this needs to be during the formative years Young adults are subjected to societal influences that may not be in line with what the parents have in mind Life lessons must be given but respect of the young mind is critical to maintain balance Most parents find that they are busy with the day to day life demands to the extent that their offspring are left to find their ways Outside influences end up shaping the young minds In this true story the challenge came when the two young adults fell in love and decided to marry Their love was stronger than all efforts to separate them

Hanging by a Thread Edward Chinhanu, 2019-10-01 The book is a desperate S O S call by a Zimbabwean peacebuilder Edward Chinhanu to the world to help resolve his country's political conflict which has spanned 40 years and has torn it apart Poverty and begging are widespread especially now that there's no power energy and money to buy these The book is an expose of how young well educated intelligent and world exposed citizens survive in a dictatorship and military rule and how such a government treats such people During Mugabe's reign all literature that criticized him or his way of doing things was heavily censored banned or sent one to prison This is the first ever collection of some events during the Mugabe and his successor Emmerson Mnangagwa's era in Zimbabwe by a participant activist during that time The events in these stories are mostly the personal experiences of the writer Edward's experiences and perspective briefly sum up what Zimbabweans went through under Robert Mugabe and Emmerson Mnangagwa A few of the stories have a link to Edward's popular column in The Manica Post newspaper Letter from the Ghetto which he ran between 2003 and 2009 before it was unceremoniously stopped The events and stories in this book teach anyone in power at any given time to promote peace happiness and industry for the good and continued improvement of the human race The writing of the book saw many desks from Ecocash queues money dealer queues combi seats and queues hospitals tuckshops banks ZESA and farms This is a rich book that best summarises Zimbabwe what the people have how they live and how they die Lastly the book is about one of the last dictatorships on the African continent It opens up close issues about Zimbabwe and its people than you ever imagined you knew It follows real raw events from ordinary peace loving patient and lovable Zimbabweans on the ground their daily grind under the rule of Robert Mugabe and Emmerson Mnangagwa especially between 2000 and 2019 The book is also a freedom call to the younger generation of Zimbabweans They should know that a better life than the one they are currently living is possible However it cannot come while they rest on their laurels They have to engage and it starts now The book is written and read on two levels On the first one one can enjoy the experiences escapades and adventures of ordinary Zimbabweans as they manoeuvre the road of life in a harsh socio economic environment and on the second vigorously explores the pertinent issues of human rights democracy peace justice military rule and others

Janine Roberts, 2009-07 Follow a young woman off the plane down winding dusty paths and through the doors of an orphanage where children are waiting to teach you the most important lessons in life. Travel past the orphanage to the surrounding villages and stoop inside darkened huts to greet men, women and children whose stories of amazing faith give you strength and courage to go forth and fight the everyday battles. See the AIDS epidemic spread from household to household yet watch as each one rises from the ashes and keeps going. Return in the evening to the quiet cement house enveloped in darkness the only light a small glow from your candle. Look around the room at your new friends a people willing to trust God and find joy in the midst of these devastating circumstances. You will come to realize that no matter what a person faces the pain of grief and hardship is greatly diminished in the presence of lavish love. Come experience true love. Janine Roberts grew up in Vienna West Virginia. She graduated from West Virginia Wesleyan College in 1999 and Asbury Theological Seminary in 2004. Janine traveled to Zimbabwe in 1998 and 2002 before moving to Fairfield Children's Homes from 2004 to 2007. During her time there she worked with Zimbabwean volunteers to expand a program called HOPE. This program provides nutrition education and medical support to orphans so that they can continue living with relatives in their communities. She plans to return to live in Zimbabwe in 2009. Born in the small Zimbabwean village of Gandanzara Bishop Eben Kanukayi Nhiwatiwa became an inspired and accomplished leader in the church and larger society. Elected as a bishop in The United Methodist Church in 2004 he has guided ministries in Zimbabwe and across Africa and beyond through periods of immense and rapid change. In his book By the Grace of God the bishop takes the reader through his educational odyssey winding through Zimbabwe and the United States. He narrates with humor his introduction to the US and its unfamiliar customs. He inspires readers with the story of the remarkable series of events that shaped him as a Christian and bishop. The book provides a succinct master class on the art and science of leadership. Drawing inspiration and insights from an array of literature and astute observation Nhiwatiwa synthesizes what have been his most important gleanings about factors that contribute to visionary and effective leadership. Nhiwatiwa became known as the Chabadza Bishop advocating for vibrant mutual partnerships with churches and annual conferences in other parts of the world. Chabadza is a Shona word meaning to give a helping hand to someone who is already working. He urges people asking for help to be active workers in the project themselves. He has diligently advanced ideas for collaboration that eliminate approaches rooted in maintaining dependency. Nhiwatiwa writes Life changing events
