 Resilience Dividend Judith Rodin, 2014-11-11 Building resilience the ability to bounce back more quickly and effectively is an urgent social and economic issue Our interconnected world is susceptible to sudden and dramatic shocks and stresses a cyber attack a new strain of virus a structural failure a violent storm a civil disturbance an economic blow Through an astonishing range of stories Judith Rodin shows how people organizations businesses communities and cities have developed resilience in the face of otherwise catastrophic challenges Medellin Colombia was once the drug and murder capital of South America Now it s host to international conferences and an emerging vacation destination Tulsa Oklahoma cracked the code of rapid urban development in a floodplain Airbnb Toyota Ikea Coca Cola and other companies have realized the value of reducing vulnerabilities and potential threats to customers employees and their bottom line In the Mau Forest of Kenya bottom up solutions are critical for dealing with climate change environmental degradation and displacement of locals Following Superstorm Sandy the Rockaway Surf Club in New York played a vital role in distributing emergency supplies As we grow more adept at managing disruption and more skilled at resilience building Rodin reveals how we are able to create and take advantage of new economic and social opportunities that offer us the capacity to recover after catastrophes and

Constructing a New Canon of Post-1980s Indian English Fiction

Sahdev Luhar, Madhurita Choudhary, 2017-08-21 The literary canon implies the evaluation or estimation of certain literary texts as the most important during a particular time. The canon is not merely a set of texts; it is a set of standards, evaluative procedures, and values.

Belonging to a canon confers a guarantee of literary greatness. A canon is formed by a particular group to channelize cultural hegemony over others or can be constructed by a governed group to bring about cultural symmetry. The rise of diverse literatures in English in different parts of the world after the colonial rule of England was the consequence of an urge to articulate a cultural equilibrium or an urge to strike back. The process of canon formation is also a focused and bigoted act and is always carried out to accomplish certain self-centred objectives. It is commonly accepted that canon formation is executed to accomplish or naturalize certain ideological functions. In the sphere of Indian English literature, Indian English fiction after the end of the 1980s has emerged as a new canon. This book looks into the process of literary canon formation in Indian universities and examines such fiction as an alternative literary canon and as an anti-imperialistic response to the British literary canon. The book ascertains the anti-imperialistic design involved in forming the canon of post-1980 Indian English fiction, examines the gradual emerging trends in such fiction, and discerns the role of language, culture, and native ethos in the formation of a canon. It also differentiates post-1980s Indian English fiction from British fiction, bhasha fiction, and even from pre-1980s Indian English fiction.
