Namibia's Red Line G. Miescher, 2012-06-18 Based on archival sources and oral history this book reconstructs a border building process in Namibia that spanned more than sixty years The process commenced with the establishment of a temporary veterinary defence line against rinderpest by the German colonial authorities in the late nineteenth century and ended with the construction of a continuous two metre high fence by the South African colonial government sixty years later. This 1250 kilometre fence divides northern from central Namibia even today. The book combines a macro and a micro perspective and differentiates between cartographic and physical reality. The analysis explores both the colonial state's agency with regard to veterinary and settlement policies and the strategies of Africans and Europeans living close to the border. The analysis also includes the varying perceptions of individuals and populations who lived further north and south of the border and describes their experiences crossing the border as migrant workers, African traders, European settlers and colonial officials. The Red Line's history is understood as a gradual process of segregating livestock and people and of constructing dichotomies of modern and traditional, healthy and sick, European and African.

International Human Rights Law in Africa, Frans Viljoen, 2012-03-29. Providing a comprehensive and analytical overview of human rights in Africa, this book deals particularly with the African regional system of human rights protection. Among the issues it explores are poverty, HIV/AIDS and the tension between international standards and national implementation.

International Organizations and the Law of the Sea 1997, Barbara Kwiatkowska, Harm Dotinga, Erik J. Molenaar, Alex G. Oude Elferink, Alfred H.A. Soons, 2023-07-03. Now in its 13th year, the NILOS Documentary Yearbook provides the reader with an excellent collection of documents related to ocean affairs and the law of the sea, issued each year by organizations, organs and bodies of the United Nations system. Documents of the UN General Assembly, Meeting of State Parties to the 1982 UN Law of the Sea Convention, ISBA, ITLOS, Follow Up to the UN Straddling Fish Stocks and Small Island States Conferences, Panama Canal, ECOSOC, UNEP and UNCTAD are included first, followed by the documents of FAO, IAEA, IMO, UNESCO, IOC. As in the previous volumes, documents which were issued in the course of 1997 are reproduced, while other relevant documents are listed. The NILOS Documentary Yearbook has proved to be of invaluable assistance in facilitating access by the community of scholars and practitioners in ocean affairs and the law of the sea to essential documentation. The entry of the 1992 UN Law of the Sea Convention into force on 16th November 1994 and of the Part XI Agreement on 28 July 1996 and progress in the implementation of Chapter 17 of Agenda 21 make continuation of this assistance of particular significance in the years to come. The members of the Yearbook's Advisory Board are Judges Abdul Koroma and Shigeru Oda of the ICJ, Judges Thomas Mensah, Dolliver Nelson and Tullio Treves of the ITLOS, as well as Rosalie Balkin, Edward Brown, Lee Kimball, Bernard Oxman and Shabtai Rosenne.

CTIA: Consolidated Treaties and International Agreements 2009 Vol 6, OCEANA, 2011-03-17. Consolidated Treaties International Agreements is the only

up to date publication available that offers the full text coverage of all new treaties and international agreements to which the United States is a party. Treaties that have been formally ratified but not officially published as well as those pending ratification are included to guarantee the most comprehensive treaty information available. Executive agreements that have been made available by the Department of State in the previous year are also included. A unique and thorough indexing system with indices appearing in each volume provides readers with quick and easy access to treaties. Young People,

Violence and Strategic Interventions in Sub-Saharan Africa Kammila Naidoo, Oluwafemi Adeagbo, Xiaoming Li, 2023-01-20

This edited volume offers a rich collection of up to date research and critical scholarship from various African institutions on incidents of youth violence intervention and prevention in sub Saharan Africa. It integrates thinking, evidence, responses and debates relating to this topic, laying the basis for fresh insights and innovative strategies. The chapters capture a spectrum of pertinent issues such as economic hardship, lockdowns, sexual and reproductive health, pregnancy, online sexual harassment, xenophobic violence and micro aggressions in school contexts and present guidelines on how countries might learn from successful interventions recently implemented. They explore young people's access to familial and community resources, state sponsored initiatives, peer counselling, youth friendly services and other relevant structures. Thus, among other things, this volume stimulates further debate on what is driving violence in different African contexts, specifically how intersectional identities create vulnerabilities to violence and influences ways of dealing with the issue. This interdisciplinary and cross cutting volume serves as a vital resource for experts at universities, international organisations, civil society groups and intergovernmental organisations who wish to both analyse and take action to address and prevent the type of violence that currently afflicts young people in sub Saharan Africa today. United Nations Juridical Yearbook United Nations, 1982

Timor-Leste William Binchy, 2009 Timor Leste has had a troubled history and faces an uncertain future. Having experienced colonization for centuries followed by the Indonesian occupation with all its abuses of human rights, Timor Leste emerged as an independent state based on the rule of law and on respect for human rights. The last few years have shown that no society is simple and that the complex influences of the past continue to shape political, social and cultural realities. This book examines the contemporary challenges for justice and human rights in the shadow of the past. It approaches the task from a broad interdisciplinary perspective, conscious of the need to integrate insights not only of scholars immersed in human rights, international criminal justice and customary law but of others whose backgrounds are in international relations, history, anthropology, demography, sociology, geography and ecology. The Human Factor in Governance W.

McCourt, 2006-10-06 This book explores the ways governments manage public employees in developing countries and how this in turn impacts on the success of national development and governance strategies. It presents seven in depth case studies from developing countries in Africa and Asia and proposes ways forward for Human Resource Management in developing countries. International Human Rights Law Olivier De Schutter, 2014-08-07 The leading textbook on international human rights law is now better than ever The content has been fully updated and now provides more detailed coverage of substantive human rights along with new sections on the war on terror and on the progressive realization of economic and social rights making this the most comprehensive book in the field It has a new more student friendly text design and has retained the features which made the first edition so engaging and accessible including the concise and critical style and questions and case studies within each chapter as well as suggestions for further reading Written by De Schutter whose extensive experience working in the field and teaching the subject in both the US and EU gives him a unique perspective and valuable insight into the requirements of lecturers and students This is an essential tool for all students of international human rights law

The Servants of Empire K. Molly O'Donnell, 2022-12-09 Capturing the history of thousands of German women recruited to colonize Southwest Africa between the 1890s and 1940s The Servants of Empire engages a radical nationalist history of German efforts to prevent interracial unions and establish permanent white settlement As colonists sponsored women often supported or even helped perpetrate extreme patterns of racist violence and vigilantism in Namibia which linked them inextricably to marked atrocities such as the Herero and Nama Genocides Navigating the intersections of German attitudes toward race class ethnicity gender and nation this revealing study traces the German settler community's gossip and rumors to uncover how the many poor white female settlers in Southwest Africa disrupted bourgeois race and gender relations and contributed to the trenchant sexual and racial violence in the territory

Chilton's Jewelers' Circular/keystone, 1988-11 Namibia's Children Michaela Fink, Reimer Gronemeyer, 2021-04-16 Many children in Namibia find themselves facing a social crisis They have been abandoned or abused are malnourished homeless or live in shacks that barely provide any protection However amidst these disastrous living conditions children have developed remarkable survival skills and come up with equally clever and disillusioned analyses of their situation For three years Michaela Fink and Reimer Gronemeyer conducted interviews in Namibia with women who take care of vulnerable children The book gives these children a voice in interviews and essays
