SADC Gender Protocol 2017 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe,Makamure, Lucia,2017-10-04 The SADC Protocol on Gender and Development is the only sub regional instrument in the world that brings together global and continental commitments to gender equality in one instrument used to enhance accountability The Southern African Gender Protocol Alliance is a network of country and regional NGOs that campaigned for the Protocol its updating implementation and tracking Originally aligned to the Millennium Development Goals that expired in 2015 SADC Gender Ministers updated the Protocol and aligned it to the Sustainable development Goals SDGs Beijing Plus Twenty and the Africa Agenda 2063 in 2016 In July 2017 the Ministers adopted a Monitoring Evaluation and Reporting Framework MERF that will be the basis of future reporting Now in its ninth edition the 2017 Barometer is the first assessment of the Post 2015 SADC Gender Protocol Moving with the times the Alliance has expanded the two key main yardsticks in the Barometer the SADC Gender and Development Index SGDI and the Citizen Score Card CSC The Barometer incorporates many MERF and SDG indicators as well as its own unique measures of voice choice and control The Barometer also introduces the Gender Responsive Assessment of Constitutions and Laws conducted by Alliance experts and networks around the region A wealth of data insights and analysis awaits all readers of the Barometer that will also be made available online and in multi media formats The SADC we want is one in which citizens engage step it up for gender equality and make sure we achieve Planet 50 50 by 2030      Reproducing Revolution Jenny Hedström,2025-07-15 In Reproducing Revolution Jenny Hedström explores the Kachin revolution in Myanmar from the perspective of female soldiers female activists and women displaced by the violence in northern Myanmar Hedström argues that the household is an inherently gendered militarized and political space that impacts and is in turn impacted by the external conflict with which it coexists In this context women's everyday labor the gendered work of childcare farming fighting and forging connections both across households and between the household and the army and the nation is key to revolutionary survival Hedström calls this labor militarized social reproduction and in Reproducing Revolution she demonstrates that such labor is critical to the military effort and that warfare itself is shaped through everyday domestic action      Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements Jocelyn Alexander,JoAnn McGregor,Blessing-Miles Tendi,2020-05-21 Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements offers new perspectives on southern Africa's wars of national liberation drawing on extensive oral historical and archival research Assuming neither the primacy of nationalist loyalties as they exist today nor any single path to liberation the book unpicks any notion of a straightforward imposition of Cold War ideologies or strategic interests on liberation wars This approach adds new dimensions to the rich literatures on the Global Cold War and on solidarity movements The contributors trace the ways that ideas and practices were made adopted and circulated through time and space through a focus on African soldiers politicians and diplomats The book also asks what motivated the men and women who crossed borders to join liberation movements how Cold War influences were acted upon interpreted and used and why certain moments venues and relations took on exaggerated importance The connections among liberation movements between them and their hosts and across an extraordinarily diverse set of external actors reveal surprising exchanges and lasting legacies that have too often been obscured by the assertion of monolithic national histories Tracing an extraordinarily diverse set of interactions and exchanges Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements will be of great interest to scholars of Southern Africa Transnational History the Cold War and African Politics The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies      Female Fighters Reed M. Wood,2019-08-27 The presence of women combatants on the battlefield especially in large numbers strikes many observers as a notable departure from the historical norm Yet women have played a significant active role in many contemporary armed rebellions Over recent decades numerous resistance movements in many regions of the globe have deployed thousands of female fighters in combat In Female Fighters Reed M Wood explains why some rebel groups deploy women in combat while others exclude women from their ranks and the strategic implications of this decision Examining a vast original dataset on female fighters in over 250 rebel organizations Wood argues rebel groups can gain considerable strategic advantages by including women fighters Drawing on women increases the pool of available recruits and helps ameliorate resource constraints Furthermore the visible presence of female fighters often becomes an important propaganda tool for domestic and international audiences Images of women combatants help raise a group's visibility boost local recruitment and aid the group's efforts to solicit support from transnational actors and diaspora communities However Wood finds that regardless of the wartime resource challenges they face religious fundamentalist rebels consistently resist utilizing female fighters A rich data driven study Female Fighters presents a systematic comprehensive analysis of the impact women's participation has on organized political violence in the modern era

United States the United Kingdom Israel Australia and South Africa Despite increased opportunities for women in the militaries of many countries and wider recognition of the value of including gender perspectives to enhance operational effectiveness progress has encountered roadblocks even nearly twenty years after United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 kicked off the women peace and security agenda Robert Egnell Mayesha Alam and the contributors to this volume conclude that there is no single model for change that can be applied to every country but the comparative findings reveal many policy relevant lessons while advancing scholarship about women and gendered perspectives in the military
