Security, and Violence in Southern Africa Monica Kathina Juma, Jennifer Klot, 2011 In the 10 years since the United Nations Security Council's first resolution on HIV/AIDS the pandemic has had far reaching implications for human security In sub Saharan Africa the epicentre of the pandemic the consequences have been borne disproportionately by women Violent conflicts and insecurity throughout the region characterised by population movements forced migration and environmental crises have overwhelmed the capacity of states to provide preventative measures against HIV/AIDS care and treatment In many areas the related stress factors on health systems and basic service provision have pushed community and kinship networks beyond their breaking points The plight of women is exacerbated because they are vulnerable and at high risk of HIV infection due to increased care burdens within the household and community sexual and gender based violence and exploitation as well as coercive interpersonal relationships This volume is a welcome addition to the literature on HIV/AIDS and should serve as a useful tool for Aids activists community health workers as well as for policy makers in the region

Courting Rights Richard Elliott, Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS., 2006 Over the years people living with or affected by HIV have sometimes successfully claimed the protection of the law In other instances courageous activists have challenged the law to embody the human rights protections they deserve This volume presents 30 summaries of court or tribunal proceedings aimed at defending or securing the human rights of people living with or vulnerable to HIV With an emphasis on cases from developing countries this volume examines key litigation efforts to advance a human rights based approach to HIV on three fronts discrimination access to treatment and prevention and care for prisoners Understanding the ways in which litigation has been used in the struggle for human rights successfully or otherwise helps legislators jurists advocates and policy makers to understand and use the law optimally in the response to AIDS

Exploring Economic Reintegration in Namibia. Individual Trajectories of PLAN Ex-Fighters and SWAPO Exiles, 1989-2018 Tichaona Mazarire, 2023-01-18 Exploring Economic Reintegration in Namibia Individual Trajectories of PLAN Ex Fighters and SWAPO Exiles 1989 2018 draws from life histories to present constraints and possibilities that have shaped former SWAPO exiles economic reintegration in post colonial Namibia from 1989 through 2018 The book advances three arguments each of which pushes beyond existing scholarship on Namibia and or economic reintegration broadly Collectively these arguments challenge dominant narratives that have generalized former SWAPO exiles economic reintegration experiences highlighting that there is no single narrative that can describe their unique life stories of reintegration in the post colony Debates of the National Assembly Namibia. Namibia Zen-Asser Mnakapa, 1996 Licensed to Kill Robert Young Pelton, 2007-08-28 Robert Young Pelton first became aware of the phenomenon of hired guns in the War on Terror when he met a covert team of contractors on the Afghanistan Pakistan border in the fall of 2003 Pelton soon embarked on a globe spanning odyssey to penetrate and understand this shadowy world ultimately delivering stunning insights into the way private soldiers are used Enter a blood soaked world of South African mercenaries and tribal fighters backed by ruthless financiers Drop into Baghdad s Green Zone strap on body armor and take a daily high speed ride with a doomed crew of security contractors who dodge car bombs and snipers just to get their charges to the airport Share a drink in a chic hotel bar with wealthy owners of private armies who debate the best way to stay alive in war zones Licensed to Kill spans four continents and three years taking us inside the CIA s dirty wars the brutal contractor murders in Fallujah and the Alamo like sieges in Najaf and Al Kut the Deep South contractor training camps where ex Special Operations soldiers and even small town cops learn the ropes the contractor conventions where macho attendees swap bullet punctuated tales and discuss upcoming gigs and the grim Central African prison where contractors turned failed mercenaries pay a steep price The United States has encouraged the use of the private sector in all facets of the War on Terror placing contractors outside the bounds of functional legal constraints With the shocking clarity that can come only from firsthand observation Licensed to Kill painstakingly deconstructs the most controversial events and introduces the pivotal players Most disturbingly it shows that there are indeed thousands of contractors with hundreds more being produced every month who ve been given a license to kill their services available to the highest bidder
