Exploring Practices Of Ministry Foundations For Learning:

Exploring Practices of Ministry Pamela Cooper-White, Michael L. Cooper-White, 2014 Fortress Press Foundations for Learning series prepares students for academic success through compelling resources that kick start their educational journey into professional Christian ministry In Exploring Practices of Ministry Pamela Cooper White and Michael Cooper White share insights from their extensive experience as parish ministers church agency executives and seminary educators in diverse multicultural and international contexts Pamela an Episcopal priest who teaches pastoral theology care and counseling is also a pastoral psychotherapist with an extensive clinical background Michael a Lutheran pastor and seminary president is also a pilot and flight instructor and has served as a chaplain with the Civil Air Patrol The authors share their wisdom with seminarians and other readers seeking to deepen theological reflection and expand skills as ministry practitioners While not all readers are preparing to be ordained ministers most will engage in many of the practices described in the book preaching and public speaking teaching leading liturgies conducting ceremonies counseling and offering pastoral support for persons undergoing life transitions and serving as organizational leaders in congregations chaplaincies social ministries and in the public arena This book is a companion journal for pilgrims on the way to becoming confident practitioners of ministry Kingdom Learning David Heywood, 2017-07-05 Drawing on the discipline of adult education and his own research into the way people learn David Heywood explains how churches can become learning communities in which people grow as disciples and find their place in a collaborative pattern of ministry Reimagining Ministerial Formation David Heywood, 2021-04-30 The Church is currently experiencing a transition in the way it understands and practises both mission and ministry It is to be outward looking engaging with the wider community involving all its members in mission and clergy are to play the role of enablers and equippers of the ministry of the whole church However ministerial formation in colleges and courses throughout the country lags behind this emerging consensus Theological education is still largely based on academic models Reimagining Ministerial Formation offers a new way forward where ministry comes to be about the whole church and ministerial formation is about collaboration between clergy and laity It argues strongly for a shift away from front loaded training to a new focus on formation as a life long process Exploring classroom assessment practices and teacher decision-making Dennis Alonzo, Chris Davison, Chris Ann Harrison, 2023-05-25

Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children La Verne Tolbert, 2014-05-19 Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children A Holistic Approach answers questions about the most effective ways to help children pre teens and teens develop spiritually This collection of research gleaned from presentations during the Fourth Triennial Children's Spirituality Conference at Concordia University in 2012 is divided into four major sections 1 theological and historical foundations 2 engaging parents and congregations 3 engaging methodologies and 4 exploring children at risk child pornography social justice intercultural diversity and abstinence education Researchers acknowledge that the home is the foundation for Christian nurture In Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children both scholars and ministry leaders come together with parents to promote a holistic environment where children are encouraged to love respect and obey God From birth to high school children's voices resonate throughout these studies as they are invited to share their reflections and experiences Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children is a lively easy to read collection that reflects a broad range of faith traditions and is ideal for all those who are committed to the spiritual development of children
