

Management Operations

Module 1 - The Management Story

The diagram above is a simplified representation of the organizational structure of a company. It shows the hierarchy of the organization, from the top level down to the bottom level. The top level is the Chief Executive Officer, who is responsible for the overall management of the company. Below the CEO are the President and Vice President, who are responsible for the day-to-day operations of the company. The President is responsible for the Sales, Marketing, and Finance departments, while the Vice President is responsible for the Operations and Human Resources departments. Each of these departments is further divided into regional offices, such as North America and South America. This structure allows the company to manage its operations effectively across different regions.

- (a) Identify the various functions that are performed by the organization.
 - 1. Sales
