Paper 9011/01

Prophets of the Old Testament

General comments

Time management was generally good, and most candidates answered four good questions. Some candidates spent too little time on Question 10, and lost many marks by writing too little.

Comments on individual questions

Question 1

Consider the claim that the prophets always based their messages on those who went before them.

The weakest responses to this question simply said that each prophet was unique, and then said why, without answering the question. The best responses tended to focus on the continuity of issues like covenant theology stemming from Moses, whilst also pointing out that each prophet addressed issues not found elsewhere: for example Jeremiah rejected Zionism in favour of his ideas about a new covenant.

Question 2

"The origins of Israelite prophecy can never be known." Discuss.

This was a very popular question. Weaker responses tended simply to list theories, without really knowing what those theories said. Most candidates were aware of T, the suggestions that prophecy originated elsewhere in the ancient world, for example in Egypt or Babylonia. Most were aware also of the suggestion that Israelite prophecy was borrowed from the Canaanites as the indigenous culture. The favoured opinion was that prophecy originated with Moses, and perhaps with Abraham before him, as a response to the unique demands of Yahweh. Most candidates did well on this question.

Question 3

Assess the view that Samuel and Elijah were ideal prophets rather than real prophets.

Most candidates took this to mean that Samuel and Elijah were real prophets as opposed to imaginary ones. The meaning of "ideal" here was really that later editors painted a picture of Samuel and Elijah that "idealized" them, making them larger than life i.e. the best kind of prophet that there could be. However, the Examiners accepted the understanding of "ideal" as "invented". Candidates displayed a very thorough knowledge of the role of both Samuel and Elijah. Some candidates had some very interesting ideas as to why Samuel and Elijah might have been ideal in the sense of "not perfect": for example some said that Saul's summoning of the spirit of Samuel suggested that Samuel was less than perfect, because he allowed himself to be used for divination and witchcraft. Elijah was told off for being "only" a henotheist and not a monotheist.

Question 4

"False prophets were more successful than true ones." Discuss.

Weaker responses often just listed the differences between true prophets and false prophets, without answering the question. Almost all candidates made a reasonable job of this question, and there were some interesting comments. Many said that the false prophets who opposed Elijah did not have much luck, since they all died, which was not very successful! One of the most interesting comments was from the candidates who said that false prophets were obviously more successful, otherwise there would have been no need for true ones.

Contextualization and the Old Testament Jerry Hwang, 2022-09-26 Christianity is often viewed in Asia as a Western imposition Challenging this Dr Jerry Hwang examines the Old Testament's cultural engagement of its ancient Near Eastern context arguing that Scripture itself provides the ultimate model for contextualizing theology in Asia While it is common for missiological studies to ignore the Old Testament in their discussion of contextualization truly biblical contextualization must include the whole Bible not simply the New Testament This study provides insightful discourse between the Old Testament and various Asian contexts while demonstrating how Asian perspectives can help overcome the Eurocentrism prevalent in Old Testament scholarship This is an ideal resource for scholars and practitioners interested in a biblical perspective of contextualization especially as related to constructing theology that honors the truth of Scripture in the context of Asia

The Arbitrator, 1926 An Informed Faith R. J. Rushdoony, 2017-07-11 Our faith should be an informed one because the God who created all things speaks to every sphere of life and all facts should be studied in light of the revelation of God in Scripture This is the foundation of Christian dominion For R J Rushdoony true government was the self government of the Christian life in terms of God's law so he wrote his position papers to better equip Christians to apply their faith to all of life His objective was not to empower the state or the organized church but rather to call every person and institution to God's Word which often put him at odds with both church and state This three volume collection of his position papers 1979 2000 are organized topically and are featured for the first time with an extensive index which will make this material far more accessible to the studious reader This beautiful three volume collection of hardback books topically organizes ALL of Rushdoony's position papers not only the 115 originally published in Roots of Reconstruction but also 118 later essays including six recently discovered unpublished papers Faith and Order Commission Papers, 1990 Is the Gospel Good News? Stanley E. discuss this good news from both Old and New Testament passages and themes The papers in the Theology section address theological topics in light of the question of what constitutes the good news Finally the papers in the Crucial Topics section explore new and different perspectives on ways in which the gospel is good news This volume highlights diverse perspectives and proposals by scholars from various locations in different stages of their academic careers resulting in a stimulating discussion of the topic of the gospel as good news The Lutheran Witness ,1899
