The Family and Industrial Society C. C. Harris, 2021-10-17 Originally published in 1983 the origin of this book is to be found in C C Harris's Changing conceptions of the relation between family and societal form in Scase Industrial Society Class Cleavage and Control In that article Harris attempted to relate traditional research on the family to recent developments in historical enquiry and Marxist scholarship The aim of The Family and Industrial Society is to explain the character of the contemporary family by placing it in a wider historical and theoretical perspective It is therefore directed at the undergraduate student for whom the sociology of the family as a topic has for too long been relatively unrelated to those contemporary developments in sociological thought and practice which inform other substantive areas of sociological work The late C C Harris is perhaps best known for his best selling introductory text The Family An Introduction first published in 1969 This new text was not however a straightforward replacement of an earlier book by a more up to date volume Far too much had happened in sociology in social studies and in family life itself for a simple updating to make any sense The Family was primarily a descriptive introduction and was a presentation albeit critical of an orthodoxy While this new book retains an introductory element based upon The Family's earlier chapters the greater part of it is exploratory and assumes a higher level of sophistication and sociological understanding it is also substantially longer Dr Harris was singularly well qualified to write a volume of this kind Not only had he conducted and was conducting empirical research into the family but his wide theoretical interests rendered him uniquely well placed to contribute to the theoretical development of his field Few sociologists shared his familiarity with both anthropological and historical work He was thoroughly familiar with the now unfashionable structural functional approach of which he had always been critical but was enthusiastic about the potentialities of contemporary developments The result is a sophisticated text which combines instruction criticism interpretation and exploration in one volume which familiarises the student with the fundamental work of the past too often neglected and explores exciting new developments for the future It also includes the only general discussion of change in the British family since the last edition of Fletcher's The Family and Marriage in Britain

Homes of the Psalms Stacy Waddy, 1928 The Church School Journal, 1916 The Ladies' Repository, 1874 The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a piece of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When

Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Science John Michels,1905 Granite State Monthly ,1915 The Granite Monthly ,1916 Late Have I Loved Thee Augustine of Hippo,2006-12-05 The first collection of Saint Augustine s varied writings on human and divine love chosen to reflect his lifelong preoccupation with ordo amoris the principle of rightly directed love My weight is my love Saint Augustine writes in The Confessions He sees our ability to love as disordered by sin so that we often choose badly what and how to love Only by recognizing that we are commanded to love God first can any other object of our love be properly ordered Late Have I Loved Thee draws on the riches found in Augustine s sermons letters treatises and Scripture commentaries as well as passages from The Confessions and City of God Augustine 354 430 A D was the most prolific writer of Christian antiquity and the most influential theologian in Church history In his first encyclical God Is Love current Pope Benedict XVI acknowledges his indebtedness to him When we read Augustine today we encounter the same direct eloquent passions his original listeners experienced infused with his deep sense of human weakness and burning desire for union with God Great Thoughts from Master Minds ,1911
