Introduction

These Teacher Notes accompany and complement the OCR A2 Unit G544: Approaches and Research Methods in Psychology Workbook. At A2, students should have a deeper understanding of psychology than at AS, and the exam requires them to demonstrate both breadth and depth of knowledge and appreciation of research methods, approaches, issues and debates in psychology.

The Unit G544 exam is in two sections:

- In Section A, students are required to design hypothetical research in response to a stimulus scenario and to answer questions describing and explaining how they would conduct their research.
- In Section B, students choose one question (in five parts) from two questions on research methods, approaches, issues and debates in psychology.

Since the exam lasts 1½ hours, students should aim to spend 45 minutes on each section.

Answering the questions in the workbook should help students to develop skills of analysis, interpretation and evaluation, and to communicate their knowledge in a clear and effective manner. Ideally, they should practise answering questions under timed exam conditions, when
