Assessment and Teaching of 21st Century Skills Patrick Griffin, Barry McGaw, Esther Care, 2011-10-20 Rapid and seemingly accelerating changes in the economies of developed nations are having a proportional effect on the skill sets required of workers in many new jobs Work environments are often technology heavy while problems are frequently ill defined and tackled by multidisciplinary teams This book contains insights based on research conducted as part of a major international project supported by Cisco Intel and Microsoft It faces these new working environments head on delineating new ways of thinking about 21st century skills and including operational definitions of those skills The authors focus too on fresh approaches to educational assessment and present methodological and technological solutions to the barriers that hinder ICT based assessments of these skills whether in large scale surveys or classrooms Equally committed to defining its terms and providing practical solutions and including international perspectives and comparative evaluations of assessment methodology and policy this volume tackles an issue at the top of most educationalists agendas

Social Studies Education in South and South East Asian Contexts Kerry J Kennedy, 2021-07-22 The education of young people is context bound This edited volume explores the contexts that characterise South and South East Asia and their influence on social studies education There is not a single context across this broad geographical expanse rather different religions different political systems and different values exert influences that create distinctive programmes that characterise different countries Yet there are also commonalities such as the post colonial nature of most of the countries portrayed in this book determined efforts at establishing new national communities and multiple value systems that lead to distinctive local priorities There are also voices of resistance in these chapters recognising the realities of local contexts but also recognising the need for change Social studies education in these contexts may well be descended from its origins in North America but in South and South Asian contexts it has taken on new purposes new forms and new values Education researchers policymakers and postgraduate students in comparative education will find the volume useful in its exploration and comparison of the social studies curricular and reforms that shaped them

Studies in Ethnopragnmatics, Cultural Semantics, and Intercultural Communication Lauren Sadow, Bert Peeters, Kerry Mullan, 2019-10-23 This book is the third in a three volume set that celebrates the career and achievements of Cliff Goddard a pioneer of the Natural Semantic Metalanguage approach in linguistics This third volume explores the potential of Minimal English a recent offshoot of the Natural Semantic Metalanguage with special reference to its use in Language Teaching and Intercultural Communication Often considered the most fully developed comprehensive and practical approach to cross linguistic and cross cultural semantics Natural Semantic Metalanguage is based on evidence that there is a small core of basic universal meanings semantic primes that can be expressed in all languages It has been used for linguistic and cultural analysis in such diverse fields as semantics cross cultural communication language teaching humour studies and applied linguistics and has reached far beyond the boundaries of linguistics into ethnopsychology anthropology history political science the medical humanities and ethics

Beyond the Bubble Test Linda Darling-Hammond, Frank Adamson, 2014-06-16 Performance assessment is a hot topic in school systems and educators continue to analyze its costs benefits and feasibility as a replacement for high stakes testing Until now researchers and policymakers have had to dig to find out what we know and what we still have to learn about performance assessment Beyond the Bubble Test How Performance Assessments Support 21st Century Learning synthesizes the latest findings in the field and not a moment too soon Statistics indicate that the United States is in danger of falling behind if it fails to adapt to our changing world The memory and recall strategies of traditional testing are no longer adequate to equip our students with the skills they need to excel in the global economy Instead teachers need to engage students in deeper learning assessing their ability to use higher order skills Skills like synthesizing information understanding evidence and critical problem solving are not achieved when we teach to multiple choice exams Examples in Beyond the Bubble Test paint a useful picture of how schools can begin to supplement traditional tests with something that works better This book provides new perspectives on current performance assessment research plus an incisive look at what is possible at the local and state levels Linda Darling Hammond with a team of leading scholars bring together lessons learned new directions and solid recommendations into a single readily accessible compendium Beyond the Bubble Test situates the current debate on performance assessment within the context of testing in the United States This comprehensive resource also looks beyond our U S borders to Singapore Hong Kong and other places whose reform mindedness can serve as an example to us
