History of Work Karin Hofmeester, Marcel van der Linden, 2017-11-20 Coffee from East Africa wine from California chocolate from the Ivory Coast all those every day products are based on labour often produced under appalling conditions but always involving the combination of various work processes we are often not aware of What is the day to day reality for workers in various parts of the world and how was it in the past How do they work today and how did they work in the past These and many other questions comprise the field of the global history of work a young discipline that is introduced with this handbook In 8 thematic chapters this book discusses these aspects of work in a global and long term perspective paying attention to several kinds of work Convict labour slave and wage labour labour migration and workers of the textile industry but also workers organisation strikes and motivations for work are part of this first handbook of global labour history written by the most renowned scholars of the profession Tourism Planning and Development Jarkko Saarinen, Christian M.

Rogerson, C. Michael Hall, 2019-09-19 Academically complex and challenging to apply development and planning are increasingly relevant to the growing tourism industry This collection contains critical studies on tourism development and planning and calls for proactive holistic and responsible thinking It addresses conceptual and contemporary issues in development and planning research including political trust innovation networks sustainability moral encounters enclavisation and evolutionary economics It argues that recognition of the contextual and historical dimensions around tourism development and planning is essential to help both researchers and practitioners better understand destination and place based decision making In addition it will lead to improvements in stakeholder relations and explains how tourism best works with localities and localities with tourism This book was originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies

Foodscapes Olaf Kühne, Julia Deborah Fischer, Timo Sedelmeier, Volker Hochschild, Barbara Staniscia, Cesare Manetti, Liliana Dumitrache, Ana-Maria Talos, Angel Menéndez Rexach, Ana de Marcos Fernández, 2023-08-01 Since the mid 1990s the term foodscapes has been used Its reference to landscape opens it up to a wide theoretical variety and numerous methodological approaches Through the large semantic yard of the concept of landscape it becomes clear that the approach of foodscapes aims less at the description or pure positivistic analysis of the production distribution and consumption of food but is rather open to aesthetic approaches normative questions aspects of the connection of food and space with meaning In this respect research on foodscapes is not simply a part of food geography but reaches beyond it With this anthology we contribute to the development of the research field on foodscapes and combine diverse perspectives from different disciplines locations and theoretical as well as methodological backgrounds on the diversity of what foodscapes can be Our anthology Foodscapes Theory History and Current European Examples is the result of the collaboration of lecturers and students from the universities of Bucharest Madrid Rome and Tbingen Dynamics of Gender Borders Sylvie Fogiel-Bijaoui, Rachel Sharaby, 2017-06-26 Resting on the multifaceted and multicultural voices of women secular and religious old timers and newcomers at the center or on the periphery of their communities it brings into sharper focus rarely raised issues related to gender borders and to the private and public spheres Beyond the specific society they treat these essays contribute to our understanding of the social mechanisms that re produce gender inequality in modernity in its socialist capitalist or postindustrial versions They also provide additional evidence for the limits of any attempt to achieve gender equality by focusing on the transformation of women without challenging hegemonic masculinities
