Pooley, 2023-10-17 What does it mean to belong In The Land is Sung musicologist Thomas M Pooley shows how performances of song dance and praise poetry connect Zulu communities to their ancestral homes and genealogies For those without land tenure in the province of KwaZulu Nata performances articulate a sense of place Migrants express their allegiances through performance and spiritual relationships to land are embodied in rituals that invoke ancestral connection while advancing well being through intergenerational communication Engaging with justice and environmental ethics education and indigenous knowledge systems musical and linguistic analysis and the ethics of recording practice Pooley s analysis draws on genres of music and dance recorded in the midlands and borderlands of South Africa and in Johannesburg s inner city His detailed sound writing captures the visceral experiences of performances in everyday life The book is richly illustrated and there is a companion website featuring both video and audio examples Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1994 Geographies of Schooling Holger Jahnke,Caroline Kramer,Peter Meusburger,2019-08-21 This open access book explores the complex relationship between schooling as a set of practices embedded in educational institutions and their specific spatial dimensions from different disciplinary perspectives It presents innovative empirical and conceptual research by international scholars from the fields of social geography pedagogy educational and social sciences in Germany the United Kingdom France Czechia Hungary Austria Switzerland Norway and Canada The book covers a broad range of topics all examined from a spatial perspective the governance of schooling the transition processes of and within national school systems the question of small schools in peripheral areas as well as the embeddedness of schooling in broader processes of social change Transcending disciplinary boundaries the book offers deep insights into current theoretical debates and empirical case studies within the broad research field encompassing the complex relationship between education and space Feminisms and Ruralities Barbara Pini,Berit Brandth,Jo Little,2014-12-18 Feminist concern with difference has rarely extended to rurality even if it is now widely recognized that experiences of inequality depend on intersections of several identities in each individual life This lack of concern may reflect the urban background of the majority of feminist academics or at least their urban positionality once in the academy It may equivalently be that feminists have been influenced by stereotypes of rural women as traditional and reactionary and thus seen them as unlikely exponents of gender equality and an unfruitful focus for scholarly energies Perhaps the problem is a broader one that is reflective of the much documented but still apparent unwillingness of many feminists to recognize and address difference in any of its manifestations Regardless even with the recent interest in intersectionality which has necessarily renewed and reenergized debates in feminism about diversity and inclusion the question of how women are differently positioned because of their non metropolitan location has remained largely overlooked The College Handbook College Entrance Examination Board,1998 Presents information on 4 year colleges and universities and 2 year community colleges and technical schools Violent and Verdant KangJae Jerry Lee,2025-03-21 Public parks in the U S are one of the most contentious and paradoxical places Many Americans believe public parks are encapsulations of nature promoters of health and embodiments of egalitarianism and democracy providing a wide range of health economic cultural and social benefits to users Yet the historical reality of American public parks has been riddled with greed hypocrisy prejudice and ulterior motives of the rich and powerful Numerous people have been displaced exploited and even killed because of public parks Drawing from multiple disciplines such as sociology history geography urban planning environmental science and leisure studies Violent and Verdant Systemic Injustice in Public Parks in the U S takes a two pronged approach to provide critical and fresh insights on public parks in the U S It looks back illuminating how parks have been sites of enduring violence and oppression But it also looks forward offering practical strategies and philosophical reimaginings of
