Geography Pfinal Memo 2014:

Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen, 2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning

The Urban Political Theresa Enright, Ugo Rossi, 2017-11-01 This book examines the political and economic trajectories of cities following the 2008 financial crisis The authors claim that in this era which they dub late neoliberalism urban spaces institutions subjectivities and organizational forms are undergoing processes of radical transformation and recomposition The volume deftly argues that the urban political horizon of late neoliberalism is ambivalent marked by many progressive mobilizations for equality and justice but also by regressive forces of austerity exploitation and domination

Taken for a Ride Matteo Rizzo, 2017 How does public transport work in an African city under neoliberalism Who owns what in it Who has the power to influence its shape and changes in it over time What does it mean to be a precarious and informal worker in the private minibuses that provide public transport in Dar es Salaam These are the main questions that inform this in depth case study of Dar es Salaam's public transport system over more than forty years The growth of cities and informal economies are two central manifestations of globalization in the developing world Taken for a Ride addresses both drawing on long term fieldwork in Dar es Salaam Tanzania and charting its public transport system's journey from public to private provision This new addition to the Critical Frontiers of Theory Research and Practice in International Development Studies series investigates this shift alongside the increasing deregulation of the sector and the resulting chaotic modality of public transport It reviews state attempts to regain control over public transport and documents how informal wage relations prevailed in the sector The changing political attitude of workers towards employers and the state is investigated from an initial incapacity to respond to exploitation to the political organisation and unionisation which won workers concessions on labour rights A longitudinal study of workers throws light on patterns of occupational mobility in the sector The book ends with an analysis of the political and economic interests that shaped the introduction of Bus Rapid Transit in Dar es Salaam and local resistance to it Taken for a Ride is an interdisciplinary political economy of public transport exposing the limitations of market fundamentalist and postcolonial approaches to the study of economic informality the urban experience in developing countries and their failure to locate the agency of the urban poor within their economic and political structures It is both a contribution to and a call for the contextualised study of neoliberalism Regional Research Frontiers - Vol. 1 Randall Jackson, Peter Schaeffer, 2017-04-17 This volume focuses on frontiers in regional research and identifies trends and future developments in the areas of innovation regional growth and migration It also addresses topics such as mobility regional forecasting and regional policy and includes expert contributions on disasters resilience and sustainability Building on recent methodological and modelling advances as well as on extensive policy analysis experience top international regional scientists identify and evaluate emerging new conceptual and methodological trends and directions in regional research This book will appeal to a wide readership from regional scientists and economists to geographers quantitatively oriented regional planners and other related disciplines It offers a source of relevant information for academic researchers and policy analysts in government and is also suitable for advanced teaching courses on regional and spatial science economics and political science

The Drone Memos Jameel Jaffer, 2010-01-12 A trenchant summation and analysis of the legal rationales behind the US drone policy of targeted killing of suspected terrorists including US citizens Publishers Weekly starred review In the long response to 9 11 the US government initiated a deeply controversial policy of targeted killing the extrajudicial execution of suspected terrorists and militants typically via drones A remarkable effort was made to legitimize this practice one that most human rights experts agree is illegal and that the United States has historically condemned In The Drone Memos civil rights lawyer Jameel Jaffer presents and assesses the legal memos and policy documents that enabled the Obama administration to put this program into action In a lucid and provocative introduction Jaffer who led the ACLU legal team that secured the release of many of the documents evaluates the drone memos in light of domestic and international law He connects the documents legal abstractions to the real world violence they allow and makes the case that we are trading core principles of democracy and human rights for the illusion of security A careful study of a secretive counterterrorism infrastructure capable of sustaining endless orderless war this book is profoundly necessary Katrina vanden Heuvel editor and publisher of The Nation

The Coming of Neo-Feudalism Joel Kotkin, 2023-01-10 Following a remarkable epoch of greater dispersion of wealth and opportunity we are inexorably returning towards a more feudal era marked by greater concentration of wealth and property reduced upward mobility demographic stagnation and increased dogmatism If the last seventy years saw a massive expansion of the middle class not only in America but in much of the developed world today that class is declining and a new more hierarchical society is emerging The new class structure resembles that of Medieval times At the apex of the new order are two classes a reborn clerical elite the clerisy which dominates the upper part of the professional ranks universities media and culture and a new aristocracy led by tech oligarchs with unprecedented wealth and growing control of information These two classes correspond to the old French First and Second Estates Below these two classes lies what was once called the Third Estate This includes the yeomanry which is made up largely of small businesspeople minor property owners skilled workers and private sector oriented professionals Ascendant for much of modern history this class is in decline while those below them the new Serfs grow in numbers a vast expanding property less population The trends are mounting but we can still reverse them if people understand what is actually occurring and have the capability to oppose them

Tourism and Geopolitics Derek R Hall, 2017-01-25 With 29 contributors from across Europe and beyond this work represents a unique and important resource that examines the many relationships between tourism and geopolitics with a focus on experiences drawn from Central and Eastern Europe It begins by assessing the changing nature of geopolitics from pejorative associations with Nazism to the more recent critical and feminist geopolitics of social science s cultural turn The book then addresses the important historical role of Central and Eastern Europe CEE in geopolitical thinking before exemplifying a range of contemporary interactions between tourism and geopolitics within this critical region Pursuing innovative analytical paths the book demonstrates the interrelated nature of tourism and geopolitics and emphasizes the freshness of this research area Addressing key principles and ideas which are applicable globally it is an essential source for researchers teachers and students of tourism geography political science and European studies as well as for diplomatic business and consultant practitioners

Legal Phantoms Susan Bibler Coutin, Jennifer M. Chacón, Stephen Lee, 2024-01-30 The 2012 Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals DACA program was supposed to be a stepping stone a policy innovation announced by the White House designed to put pressure on Congress for a broader lasting set of legislative changes Those changes never materialized and the people who hoped to benefit from them have been forced to navigate a tense and contradictory policy landscape ever since haunted by these unfulfilled promises Legal Phantoms tells their story After Congress failed to pass a comprehensive immigration bill in 2013 President Obama pivoted in 2014 to supplementing DACA with a deferred action program known as DAPA for the parents of citizens and lawful permanent residents and a DACA expansion DACA in 2014 But challenges from Republican led states prevented even these programs from going into effect Interviews with would be applicants immigrant rights advocates and government officials reveal how such failed immigration reform efforts continue to affect not only those who had hoped to benefit but their families communities and the country in which they have made an uneasy home Out of the ashes of these lost dreams though people find their own paths forward through uncharted legal territory with creativity and resistance

The Suicidal State in Somalia Mohamed Haji Ingiriis, 2016-04-01 This book is a critical reposition of the study of military regimes in Africa Documenting and delving deep into the reign and rule of General Mohamed Siad Barre regime in Somalia from 1969 up to 1991 the book puts emphasis on African agencies ostensibly shaped by external beneficiaries and patrons over what went wrong with Africa after the much awaited post colonial period It does so by critically engaging with the wider theoretical and conceptual frameworks in African Studies which more often than not tend to attribute the post colonial African State raptures to colonialism The main thesis of the book is that colonialism left Africa on its own space wherein African leaders could have made a difference By putting discrete perspectives into historical context the book circumnavigates through comparative and comprehensive holistic approach to the Siad Barre regime to reveal how colonialism did not produce less than what criminalisation of the State resulted in Somalia This empirical analysis is crucial to understanding the contemporary conundrum facing the Somali world today The argument is that the contemporary conflicts are not only attributable to but also because of the past plunders of the post colonial leaders trained by the departed colonial authorities Employing nuanced analytic concepts and categories the aim of the book is to refine the past to recapture the present and envision the future Framing new ways of analyzing military regimes in Africa begins with re assessment of how the Siad Barre regime was previously approached Marshalling extensive and extraordinary amount of sources the book unveils the intricacies and contradictions of the dictatorship and its impact on the Somali psyche The book locates the evolution of the regime within the wider context of the Cold War political contestation between the East and the West Unparalleled in depth and analysis this book is the first full length scholarly study of the Siad Barre regime systematically explaining the politics and process of the dictatorial rule The historicity of exploring Somali State trajectory entails employing a Braudelian longue dur e approach Thus three interrelated sets of contexts questions inform the study how Siad Barre himself came into power how he ruled and maintained his authoritarian reign over the Somalis and who had assisted him from inside and outside the Somali world

Dislocating the Orient Daniel Foliard, 2017-04-13 While the twentieth century s conflicting visions and exploitation of the Middle East are well documented the origins of the concept of the Middle East itself have been largely ignored With Dislocating the Orient Daniel Foliard tells the story of how the land was brought into being exploring how maps knowledge and blind ignorance all participated in the construction of this imagined region Foliard vividly illustrates how the British first defined the Middle East as a geopolitical and cartographic region in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries through their imperial maps Until then the region had never been clearly distinguished from the East or the Orient In the course of their colonial activities however the British began to conceive of the Middle East as a separate and distinct part of the world with consequences that continue to be felt today As they reimagined boundaries the British produced disputed and finally dramatically transformed the geography of the area both culturally and physically over the course of their colonial era Using a wide variety of primary texts and historical maps to show how the idea of the Middle East came into being Dislocating the Orient will interest historians of the Middle East the British empire cultural geography and cartography

How's Life? 2015 Measuring Well-being OECD, 2015-10-13 How's Life describes the essential ingredients that shape people's well being in OECD and partner countries It includes a wide variety of statistics capturing both material well being and quality of life This third edition includes a special focus on child well being Memory before Modernity Erika Kuijpers, Judith Pollmann, Johannes Mueller, Jasper van der Steen, 2013-12-05 This volume examines the practice of memory in early modern Europe showing that this was already a multimedia affair with many political uses and affecting people at all levels of society many pre modern memory practices persist until today New Lines Matthew W. Wilson, 2017-11-15 New Lines takes the pulse of a society increasingly drawn to the power of the digital map examining the conceptual and technical developments of the field of geographic information science as this work is refracted through a pervasive digital culture Matthew W Wilson draws together archival research on the birth of the digital map with a reconsideration of the critical turn in mapping and cartographic thought Seeking to bridge a foundational divide within the discipline of geography between cultural and human geographers and practitioners of Geographic Information Systems GIS Wilson suggests that GIS practitioners may operate within a critical vacuum and may not fully contend with their placement within broader networks the politics of mapping the rise of the digital humanities the activist possibilities of appropriating GIS technologies and more Employing the concept of the drawn and traced line Wilson treads the theoretical terrain of Deleuze Guattari and Gunnar Olsson while grounding their thoughts with the hybrid impulse of the more than human thought of Donna Haraway What results is a series of interventions fractures in the lines directing everyday life that provide the reader with an opportunity to consider the renewed urgency of forceful geographic representation These five fractures are criticality digitality movement attention and quantification New Lines examines their traces to find their potential and their necessity in the face of our frenetic digital life Flowing Progress Stefan Dorondel, Luminita Gatejel, 2025-08-15 Flowing Progress Transforming the Danube Through Infrastructure focuses on how different political regimes and forms of governance have imagined and technologically transformed the most international river in the world Multidisciplinary and drawing on methodologies of history anthropology of infrastructure and science technology and society this collection explores the tensions between the river and its natural pulses the humans that populate its floodplains state agencies and infrastructure The book engages the concept of disturbance to point out the circular and spiraling dynamics between hydrological processes and technopolitical and economic practices Disturbance denotes a specific type of long term dynamic between human attempts to control the Danube the material systems they implemented to achieve these goals and the agency of the river that both enabled the functioning of infrastructure and the breakdown of such arrangements It draws particular attention to the concerted efforts to contain and optimize the Danube s flow adding layer after layer of dams channels and pipes that could potentially escalate the power of a leashed river Taking a longer historical perspective from the sixteenth century until today the volume provides a variety of relevant case studies and local contexts in the Ottoman and Habsburg empires and their successor states Austria Hungary Bulgaria Romania and Serbia which show different ways of how humans have imagined and coped with this mighty river Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies Trading Environments Gordon M. Winder, Andreas Dix, 2015-12-07 This volume examines dynamic interactions between the calculative and speculative practices of commerce and the fruitfulness variability materiality liveliness and risks of nature It does so in diverse environments caught up in new trading relationships forged on and through frontiers for agriculture forestry mining and fishing Historical resource frontiers are understood in terms of commercial knowledge systems organized as projects to transform landscapes and environments The book asks how were environments traded and with what environmental and landscape consequences How have environments been engineered standardized and transformed within past trading systems What have been the successes and failures of economic knowledge in dealing with resource production in complex environments It considers cases from northern Europe North and South America Central Africa and New Zealand in the period between 1750 and 1990 and the contributors reflect on the effects of transnational commodity chains competing economic knowledge systems environmental ignorance and learning and resource exploitation In each case they identify tensions blind spots and environmental learning that plagued commercial projects on frontiers Cash Not Care Mo Stewart, 2016-09-14 Mo Stewart is a former healthcare professional a disabled female veteran and an independent researcher This book is the culmination of six years of self funded research and the evidence exposes the influence of corporate America since 1992 with the future welfare reforms of the UK The impact of the enforced austerity measures of the UK government is identified as they negatively affect the welfare and the survival of the chronically sick and disabled population in receipt of welfare benefits when unfit to work The research has informed welfare reform debates in the House of Lords and the House of Commons since 2011 and contributed to the evidence used by the United Nations to investigate the UK government for breaches of the Human Rights of sick and disabled people Endorsed by the disabled community and by academics the research has identified the adoption of lethal social policies copied from American social security policies and linked to the death of thousands of the most vulnerable of all as the UK welfare state is systematically demolished as all planned over thirty years ago by a previous Conservative government Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn
