Requirements for Certification of Teachers, Counselors, Librarians, Administrators for Elementary and Secondary Schools, Eighty-second Edition, 2017-2018 Colleen M. Frankhart, 2017-10-27 Why do we need such a book of requirements in our electronic age Since a concise accessible summary of relevant information is not consistently available on the Web sites of individual states this balcony view compilation of state certification regulations enables readers to access and compare information either about different positions within a single state or about a single position in different states Given the differences in information and formats of the state Web sites this annual volume continues to offer the most complete and timely listings of the requirements for certification of a wide range of professionals at the elementary and secondary school levels available in a single volume Provided by publisher Resources in Education ,2000 Content-area Standards for Educators ,2002 The Language Demands of School Alison L. Bailey,2007-01-01 The Language Demands of School is an edited volume describing an extensive empirical base for academic English testing instruction and professional development The chapters comprise empirical research by Bailey and colleagues at the National Center for Research on Evaluation Standards Student Testing CRESST at UCLA and invited contributions by practitioners in the fields of language policy testing and instruction The central focus of the chapters is the research conducted by CRESST over the last two years in an attempt to document the academic English language demands placed on school age learners of English The three additional chapters give the perspectives of a policy maker at the state level test developers and practitioners The Language Demands of School fills a gap in the current literature by addressing the kind s of English required of K 12 English Learner students from an evidence based perspective This is timely given the broader context of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 which has prompted school systems to identify English language proficiency tests to meet the federal mandate One of the problems that has surfaced in the search for English language tests for K 12 English Learner students is the inadequacy of existing research on the development of the academic English language skills that all students both English Learner and native English speaking need to be successful in the school setting The Language Demands of School is devoted to exploring this topic and to presenting research that illuminates both the questions and the answers
