Tourgueneff Nikolaj Ivanovič Turgenev, 1847 La Russie et les Russes Victor Tissot, 1882 Russian Émigrés in the Intellectual and Literary Life of Interwar France Leonid Livak, 2010-07-01 In a pioneering exploration of the intellectual and literary exchange between Russian migrants and French intelligentsia in the 1920s and 1930s Leonid Livak provides an impressively comprehensive bibliographic overview of a veritable who's who of Russian intellectuals and literati listing all the material published by Russian migrants or on topics pertaining to them during the period under study Focusing attention on a largely ignored chapter of European cultural history this volume challenges historical assumptions by demonstrating processes of cultural cross fertilization and illuminates the precedents Russians set for political exiles in the twentieth century A remarkable achievement in scholarship Russian migrants in the Intellectual and Literary Life of Inter War France is a valuable resource for admirers and researchers of French and Russian culture and European intellectual history La Russie et les Russes Nikolaï Ivanovitch Turgenev, 1847 The Invention of Terrorism in France, 1904-1939 Chris Millington, 2023-09-26 The Invention of Terrorism in France 1904-1939 investigates the political and social imaginaries of terrorism in the early twentieth century Chris Millington traces the development of how the French conceived of terrorism from the late nineteenth century notion that terrorism was the deed of the mad anarchist bomber to the fraught political clashes of the 1930s when terrorism came to be understood as a political act perpetrated against French interests by organized international movements Through a close analysis of a series of terrorist incidents and representations thereof in public discourse and the press the book argues that contemporary ideas of terrorism in France as un-French that is contrary to the ideas and values however defined that make up Frenchness emerged in the interwar years and subsequently took root long before the terrorist campaigns of Algerian nationalists during the 1950s and 1960s Millington conceptualizes terrorism not only as the act itself but also as a political and cultural construction of violence composed from a variety of discourses and deployed in particular circumstances by commentators witnesses and perpetrators In doing so he argues that the political and cultural battles inherent to perceptions of terrorism lay bare numerous concerns not least anxieties over immigration antiparliamentarianism representations of gender and the future of European peace Publications League of Nations, 1923 Princes et principautés russes, Xe-XVII^e siècles Wladimir Vodoff, 2024-12-11 It was only in 1547 that the ruler of Moscow Ivan the Terrible was formally proclaimed tsar emperor yet in reality the title had long been in use Professor Vodoff's concern in these articles has been to uncover the significance of such usages as part of the political vocabulary of medieval Russia and to reveal the ideology behind them The period covered extends from Kievan times when the titlature reflects the close relationship and rivalry with the Byzantine empire but the main focus is on the later period when the different princes competed for the heritage of the Kievan state and the notion of

Russia itself became part of the political conflict This struggle was won by the rulers of Moscow though only in the face of determined opposition from the neighbouring principality of Tver and its history effectively suppressed or neglected in succeeding centuries is a major theme in this volume
