The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone, 2020 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi s logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi s personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi s creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi s work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities

Musings on Mortality Victor Brombert, 2013-10-15 Elegant beautifully written literary criticism examining how eight major writers From Tolstoy to Primo Levi dealt with death in their fiction The Wall Street Journal All art and the love of art Victor Brombert writes at the beginning of the deeply personal Musings on Mortality allow us to negate our nothingness As a young man returning from World War II Brombert came to understand this truth as he immersed himself in literature Death can be found everywhere in literature he saw but literature itself is on the side of life With delicacy and penetrating insight Brombert traces the theme of mortality in the work of a group of modern writers Leo Tolstoy Thomas Mann Franz Kafka Virginia Woolf Albert Camus Giorgio Bassani J M Coetzee and Primo Levi Illuminating their views on the meaning of life and the human condition Brombert ultimately reveals that by understanding how these authors wrote about mortality we can grasp the full scope of their literary achievement and vision Winner of the Robert Penn Warren Cleanth Brooks award for outstanding literary criticism Suffused with wisdom and argued with the strong hand of a weathered and feeling literary scholar It is hard to imagine such thematic criticism being done better than here What a beautiful book Thomas Harrison author of 1910 The Emancipation of Dissonance A brave and eloquent book Peter Brooks author of Henry James Goes to Paris The simplicity and directness of Brombert s style gives his discussion of the philosophical and aesthetic underpinnings of the works under scrutiny great clarity Publishers Weekly Brombert s eloquently written book is for serious lovers of literature Library Journal

Italian Film in the Shadow of Auschwitz Millicent Joy Marcus,2007-01-01 Throughout the book Marcus brings a variety of perspectives to bear on the question of how Italian filmmakers are confronting the Holocaust and why now given the sparse output of Holocaust films produced in Italy from 1945 to the early 1990s Law and the Exception Gian-Giacomo Fusco,Przemysław Tacik,2025-09-26 This book proposes a paradigm shift in the way that the state of exception as it is usually named in legal and political theory is to be understood Building on the assumption that the exception is a heuristic idea that is still a relevant category for a critical deconstruction of law this book argues that it needs to be rethought outside the boundaries of its traditional understanding To this end the book offers two strategies First it develops the ideas of exceptionality and exceptionalisation in order to grasp how measures norms and mechanisms that clearly have an exceptional character are no longer confined within the boundaries of classic institutions such as the state of exception martial law the state of emergency and so on As demonstrated recently during the COVID 19 pandemic legal systems may dissimulate the exceptional as the normal avoiding the use of formal states of exception and adopting measures that are of exceptional nature This book maintains that it is necessary to think of exceptionality outside of its usual legal footholds Emergency laws are considered here as part of a more general sphere of exceptionality that must be understood as the product of a process of the accumulation of symbols practices notions and images that are only partially expressed through law despite having long populated the legal imagination Second the book offers an analysis of the inner exceptional life of liberal constitutionalism the subterranean authoritarian drives dissimulated by the rule of law This book will interest scholars and researchers in legal and political theory as well as continental philosophy The Social Dynamics of Pronominal Systems Paul Bouissac,2019-07-15 Personal pronouns have a special status in languages As indexical tools they are the means by which languages and persons intimately interface with each other within a particular social structure Pronouns involve more than mere grammatical functions in live communication acts They variously signal the gender of speakers as parts of utterances or in their anaphoric roles They also prominently indicate with a range of degrees the kind of social relationships that hold between speakers from intimacy to indifference from dominance to submission and from solidarity to hostility Languages greatly vary in the number of pronouns and other address terms they offer to their users with a distinct range of social values Children learn their relative position in their family and in their society through the correct use of pronouns When languages come into contact because of population migrations or through the process of translation pronouns are the most sensitive zone of tension both psychologically and politically This volume endeavours to probe the comparative pragmatics of pronominal systems as social processes in a representative set from different language families and cultural areas Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey s Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature

How the Essay Film Thinks Laura Rascaroli, 2017-05-05 This book offers a novel understanding of the epistemological strategies that are mobilized by the essay film and of where and how such strategies operate Against the backdrop of Adorno s discussion of the essay form s anachronistic anti systematic and disjunctive mode of resistance and capitalizing on the centrality of the interstice in Deleuze s understanding of the cinema as image of thought the book discusses the essay film as future philosophy as a contrarian political cinema whose argumentation engages with us in a space beyond the verbal A diverse range of case studies discloses how the essay film can be a medium of thought on the basis of its dialectic use of audiovisual interstitiality The book shows how the essay film s disjunctive method comes to be realized at the level of medium montage genre temporality sound narration and framing all of these emerging as interstitial spaces of intelligence that illustrate how essayistic meaning can be sustained often in contexts of political historical or cultural extremity The essayistic urge is not to be identified with a fixed generic form but is rather situated within processes of filmic thinking that thrive in gaps Makers of Jewish Modernity Jacques Picard, Jacques M. Revel, Michael P. Steinberg, Idith Zertal, 2016-08-09 A unique reference to leading Jewish figures who helped shape the modern world This superb collection presents more than forty incisive portraits of leading Jewish thinkers artists scientists and other public figures of the last hundred years who in their own unique ways engaged with and helped shape the modern world Makers of Jewish Modernity features entries on political figures such as Walther Rathenau Rosa Luxemburg and David Ben Gurion philosophers and critics such as Walter Benjamin Hannah Arendt Isaiah Berlin Jacques Derrida and Judith Butler and artists such as Mark Rothko The book provides fresh insights into the lives and careers of novelists like Franz Kafka Saul Bellow and Philip Roth the filmmakers Joel and Ethan Coen social scientists such as Sigmund Freud religious leaders and thinkers such as Avraham Kook and Martin Buber and many others Written by a diverse group of leading contemporary scholars from around the world these vibrant and frequently surprising portraits offer a global perspective that highlights the multiplicity of Jewish experience and thought A reference book like no other Makers of Jewish Modernity includes an informative general introduction that situates its subjects within the broader context of Jewish modernity as well as a rich selection of photos Watching Pages, Reading Pictures Daniela De Pau, Georgina Torello, 2008-12-18 Italian cinema is internationally well known for the ground breaking experience of Neo Realism comedy Italian Style Spaghetti Westerns and the horror movies of the seventies However what is rather unfamiliar to wider audiences is Italian cinema's crucial and enduring affair with literature In fact since the very beginning literature has deeply influenced how Italian cinema has defined itself and grown This book provides an empirical approach to this complex and fruitful relationship The aim is to present discussions dealing with significant Italian film adaptations from literary materials which greatly exemplify the variety of styles view points and attitudes produced by such an alliance throughout the different periods Among the adaptations discussed are those that have followed trends and critical debates making them at times rather problematic Conflicts of Memory Emiliano Perra, 2010 This text reconstructs the often conflictual memories of the Holocaust in post war Italy through the analysis of press debates engendered by films and television miniseries The author discusses how Holocaust themes have been appropriated by different political and cultural factions The Idea of Europe in Literature Susanne Fendler, Ruth Wittlinger, 1999-09-11 The relevance of culture has recently enjoyed increasing recognition for the study of European integration and a European identity Appeals to a common European culture as well as appeals to different national cultures have been used respectively as a means to pursue political ends Paying tribute to literature's role as an important constituent part of a culture this collection of essays explores literary representations of Europe and its nation states and should be of particular value to anyone who is interested in cultural political or literary studies in the European context Three Italian Epistolary Novels, 2005 Three Italian Epistolary Novels looks at the development of a literary genre that flourished in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and counted among its illustrious authors Samuel Richardson Henry Fielding Pierre Choderlos de Laclos Jean Jacques Rousseau and Johann Wolfgang von Goethe These translations of three Italian novels by Foscolo De Meis and Piovene never offered before in a single study reflect social historical and stylistic aspects through 150 years of Italian literature from the birth of a touching romantic story to the time of the new currents in Italy and the period of World War II The book is particularly suited for studies in Italian European and comparative literature programs Inscribing the Other Sander L. Gilman, 1991-01-01 Inscribing the Other focuses on great authors who have by birth or choice or both found themselves outside the mainstream of their culture but who have still wished to address it Goethe Freud Wilde Heine Nietzsche and Isaac Bashevis Singer among others In thirteen probing provocative essays Sander L Gilman reinterprets their writing as it reveals their efforts to come to terms with their real or imagined sense of difference The chapters treat many themes and problems ranging widely from the romantic notion of the transcendent artist to the twentieth century artists in exile and employing the perspectives of psychiatry aesthetics photography politics and the history of mentalities The fate of Jewish writers in modern Germany or of Yiddish writers whose language is devalued in European culture is explored. The theme of difference and its artistic and intellectual manifestations runs throughout the book which includes discussions of Goethe's and Wilde's homosexuality, Nietzsche's madness, Heine's refusal to be photographed and Primo Levi's internment at Auschwitz as well as an interview with Singer. In a frank autobiographical introduction, Gilman attempts to understand his own writing as an exercise in inscribing the Other in dealing with his own sense of difference through artistic creation.
