at Harvard and the Sorbonne but remained a poet outside the academy His stories Van and The Angel chronicle his travels in southern Mexico with his friend the poet Van Buskirk and his adventures after graduating from Dartmouth in the mid 1950s Eclipsed by the more mediagenic Beat writers during his lifetime Rattray has become a powerful influence on contemporary artists and writers Living in Paris Rattray became the first English translator of Antonin Artaud and he understood Artaud's incisive scholarship and technological prophecies as few others would As he writes of his translations in How I Became One of the Invisible You have to identify with the man or the woman If you don't then you shouldn't be translating it Why would you translate something that you didn't think had an important message for other people I translated Artaud because I wanted to turn my friends on and pass a message that had relevance to our lives Not to get a grant or be hired by an English department Compiled in the months before his untimely death at age 57 How I Became One of the Invisible is the only volume of Rattray's prose This new edition edited by Robert Dewhurst includes five additional pieces two of them previously unpublished

Putting My Foot in It Rene Crevel, Ezra Pound, 1994-01-11 The novel begins with an account of the family of the major character known as the Prince of Journalists This bizarre family the grandparents a soldier and a sodomized woman the parents an orphaned epileptic and a hunchback is matched by Crevel's bizarre syntax and vocabulary nouns that initially appear legitimate intact and respectable soon decompose into obscene epithets making other nouns both common and proper suspect

Surrealism and the Gothic Neil Matheson, 2017-08-07 Surrealism and the Gothic is the first book length analysis of the role played by the gothic in both the initial emergence of surrealism and at key moments in its subsequent development as an art and literary movement The book argues the strong and sustained influence not only of the classic gothic novel itself Ann Radcliffe Charles Maturin Matthew Lewis etc but also the determinative impact of closely related phenomena as with the influence of mediumism alchemy and magic The book also traces the later development of the gothic novel as with Bram Stoker's Dracula and its mutation into such works of popular fiction as the Fant mas series of Marcel Allain and Pierre Souvestre enthusiastically taken up by writers such as Apollinaire and subsequently feeding into the development of surrealism More broadly the book considers a range of motifs strongly associated with gothic writing as with insanity incarceration and the accursed outsider explored in relation to the personal experience and electroshock treatment of Antonin Artaud A recurring motif of the analysis is that of the gothic castle developed in the writings of Andr Breton Artaud Sade Julien Gracq and other writers as well as in the work of visual artists such as Magritte

Resisting Alterities, 2021-11-01 This volume of essays poetry and prose fiction records various attempts to read the fracture zones created by the discursive strategy of a democratic imagination where space and ideas are opened to new linguistic and literary insights Pride of place is taken by essays on the Caribbean writer Wilson Harris which explore the implications of his awareness of a polyphony of coexistent voices that dislodges the hegemony of Cartesian dualism This group of studies is rounded off with an interview with and searching testimony by Harris himself The further contributions take up the implications of the encounter with alterity strangers natives barbarians in order to underline not only wonder in the face of an unknown presence or the shame through which the subject discovers itself but also the resentment involved in the creation of demonized Others As the poet Charles Tomlinson states what we take to be otherness alterity can be readmitted into our literary consciousness and seen as part of the whole causing us to readjust our awareness of the possibilities of English These essays confirm that resistance is an interface of ambivalence between discursive worlds encouraging us to read the living network of a text contrapuntally Specific topics include Billy Bragg and New Labour Schopenhauer in Britain Objectivist poetry gender and sexual identity in Nancy Cunard in Scottish fiction multivocal discourse in South Africa specific forms of alterity in Jamaica Kincaid in the poetry of Edwin Morgan in allo-Semitism and the deculturalizing perils of globalization Fighting Words Nancy F. Cott, 2020-03-17 From a Harvard historian this riveting portrait of four trailblazing American journalists highlights the power of the press in the interwar period In the fragile peace following the Great War a surprising number of restless young Americans abandoned their homes and set out impulsively to see the changing world In Fighting Words Nancy F. Cott follows four who pursued global news from contested Palestine to revolutionary China from Stalin's Moscow to Hitler's Berlin As foreign correspondents they became players in international politics and shaped Americans' awareness of critical interwar crises the spreading menace of European fascism and the likelihood of a new war while living romantic and sexual lives as modern and as hazardous as their journalism An indelible portrayal of a tumultuous era with resonance for our own Fighting Words is essential reading on the power of the press and the growth of an American sense of international responsibility
