La Raison Dans Lhistoire:

La Pensee logique et politique de M. Marleau-Ponty Joseph M Labaki, 2021-01-20 Maurice Merleau Ponty is the giant phenomenologist of his time in the entire French speaking world He is not an epistemologist nor a moralist For him the beginning of the beginning is human flesh the flesh becomes word the word becomes flesh and both die There is science and there is experience perception The mother is the latter They aren t contradictory but complete and depend on each other With regard to language for him there are words and there is grammar A word is never empty but carries its own weight even a lie is full of meaning Liberty resides in grammar an individual function and independent from books It s in the grammar where singularity lives Thinking and talking are the same Wherever there is human life there is meaning and that is irrespective of age culture religion education or social position Merleau Ponty is not a Marxist nor a communist According to him history is blind it has no mind He also finds a flaw in Freudianism Flesh is an infinite universe full of stars and black holes Following Merleau Ponty verity is dévoiler and dévoiler is verity but verity is never absolute One must take a step back There is light and there is shadow they never coincide in human life The shadow is always first and no matter how one tries to run he will never catch his shadow , La raison dans l'histoire Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel, Jean-Paul

Frick, 1992-01-01 The Transformation of Political Culture 1789-1848 F. Furet, M. Ozouf, 2015-11-24 This third volume in a much praised series on The French Revolution and the Creation of Modern Political Culture examines the way in which the Revolution has been portrayed in European thought and its impact upon the development of political philosophy in the nineteenth century Opening with the influence of Burke and other contemporaries of the Revolution and the ensuing debate over the question Why the Terror this volume explores such diverse themes as the legacy of the Revolution on the political and social evolution of Germany England Italy and Russia the crisis it brought about in the Catholic Church and the difficulties encountered in determining the end of the Revolution By showing that the upheaval in European politics and philosophy caused by the French Revolution continued to shape nations peoples and thought the texts brought together in this volume permit a better understanding of the event s extraordinary complexity Catherine the Great and the French Philosophers of the Enlightenment Inna Gorbato, 2006 This research monograph is the result of many years of archival investigation in Russia France and elsewhere into the nature of Catherine the Great s involvement with the French Enlightenment Professor Gorbato s conclusions go far beyond the consensus of philosophic and cultural interests masking an authoritarian and at times barbarous emerging European power and delves instead into Catherine s fascination with French political and social ideals Catherine s thirty four year reign was marked by a furious wholesale consumption of French arts and objets as well as a lavish patronage of French artists and philosophers Even Rousseau the self proclaimed enemy of monarchs was seriously studied though detested and debated by Catherine and her circle as the Czarina attempted to reform the educational system It is this theme of reform and renewal along with Europeanization that provides the great impetus of interest and patronage towards the philosophes and their ideas Professor Gorbatoov also shows the effect of Catherine s interest on the higher aristocracy writers and emergent professional classes that was to reach a intellectual and political crisis upon the outbreak of the French Revolution the rise of Napoleon and her grandson s battles with the Decembrists

Hermeneutic Rationality Maria Luísa Portocarrero,Luis António Umbelino,Andrzej Wierciński,2012 The problem of the limits of reason is by no means a privileged subject of an academic discourse By reducing reality to what can be conceived of within the paradigms of the scientific laboratory manipulative despotism which positivistic notion of objectivism has established creates in a human being a unilateral conscience of the world and of oneself a conscience that dominates today our understanding of existence in its manifold senses of Being and the world we live in This way of thinking based on a powerful and skillful technique aimed at controlling human life in all its dimensions intends to impose this limiting positivistic horizon on human beings in the name of Liberte Egalite and Fraternite Hermeneutic rationality resists the claims of modern science and promotes the culture of hospitality toward the world as it shows itself in its complexity Maria Luisa Portocarrero Universidade de Coimbra Portugal Professor of Philosophy specializing in the phenomenological hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur Luis Antonio Umbelino Universidade de Coimbra Portugal Professor of Philosophy and Artistic Studies Andrzej Wiercinski Albert Ludwigs Universitat Freiburg Germany Professor of Philosophy of Religion specializing in Practical Philosophy Philosophical Hermeneutics European Liberty P. Manent, R. Hausheer, W. Karpinski, W. Kaiser, 2012-12-06 This book has been published to mark the twenty fifth anniversary of the Erasmus Prize and underline the importance of the four laureates who received the Prize in the jubileum year Raymon Aron Isaiah Berlin Leszek Kolakowski and Marguerite Yourcenar can be considered four outstanding representatives of the unique European intellectual tradition that is characterised by its critical sense and respect for freedom of the individual It is for this reason that they have been awarded the Erasmus Prize The essays included in this book are devoted to these four personalities a Frenchman strongly influenced by the German philosophical tradition a Russian who has settled in Oxford a philosopher banned from his native Poland and a Frenchwoman of Belgian origin living in America Each has demonstrated in his or her own way that the ideas and ideals of European culture and tradition are of lasting value Each recognizes that human values can only flourish in a pluralistic society a society in which le juste milieu must constantly be sought The temptation to succumb to monistic dogmatic and intolerant tendencies that continue to threaten our civilisation not only from the outside but also from within must be continually resisted The dignity of man reaches full maturity first and foremost in a society in which man is the moulder and maker of himself and freedom of the individual stands central Chronicon Spinozanum, 1927 NVMEN, the Academic Study of Religion, and the IAHR Tim Jensen, Armin Geertz, 2015-11-24 Nvmen publishes papers representing the most recent scholarship in all areas of the history of religions ranging from antiquity to contemporary history It covers a diversity of geographical regions and religions of the past as well as of the present The approach of the journal to the study of religion is strictly non confessional While the emphasis lies on empirical source based research typical contributions also address issues that have a wider historical or comparative significance for the advancement of the discipline Numen also publishes papers that discuss important theoretical innovations in the study of religion and reflective studies on the history of the discipline Brill is proud to present this special volume of articles compiled to celebrate the occasion of the 60th anniversary of NVMEN International Review for the History of Religions in 2014 The articles in this volume have been selected under the auspices of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR and reflect critically on the past present and future of NVMEN the IAHR and the study of the History of Religions Hegel et la pensée philosophique en Russie, 1830-1917 Guy Planty-Bonjour, 1974-05-31 Theoretical Schools and Circles in the Twentieth-Century Humanities Marina Grishakova, Silvi Salupere, 2015-04-10 Schools and circles have been a major force in twentieth century intellectual movements They fostered circulation of ideas within and between disciplines

thus altering the shape of intellectual inquiry This volume offers a new perspective on theoretical schools in the humanities both as generators of conceptual knowledge and as cultural phenomena The structuralist semiotic phenomenological and hermeneutical schools and circles have had a deep impact on various disciplines ranging from literary studies to philosophy historiography and sociology The volume focuses on a set of loosely interrelated groups with a strong literary linguistic and semiotic component but extends to the fields of philosophy and history the interdisciplinary conjunctions arising from a sense of conceptual kinship It includes chapters on unstudied or less studied groups such as Tel Aviv School of poetics and semiotics or the research group Poetics and Hermeneutics The volume presents a significant supplement to the standard historical accounts of literary critical and related theory in the twentieth century It enhances and complicates our understanding of the twentieth century intellectual and academic history by showing schools and circles in the state of germination dialogue controversy or decline in their respective historical and institutional settings while reaching simultaneously beyond those dense settings to the new cultural and ideological situations of the twenty first century ripeness the sum of Acton's historical judgments History was not to Acton a mere academic pursuit With that view of history which considers it beneath the dry light of science as a series of phenomena capable of detachment from the present susceptible to separate analysis he had no sympathy Still less did he consider history a mere form of literary exposition The one justification for the study of history was to Acton its value as a guide in the affairs of the every day world The present is what it is because of what the past has been Human development has been a continuous chain of cause and effect Any course of action in the present must be based upon a knowledge of the way in which things we now do are hedged in limited by what men have done before us History thus becomes a great mentor a schoolmaster of action
