Marseille A travers son m tissage culturel et ses mutations cette ville d fie le temps Investigating Identities ,2009-01-01 Investigating Identities Questions of Identity in Contemporary International Crime Fiction is one of the relatively few books to date which adopts a comparative approach to the study of the genre This collection of twenty essays by international scholars examining crime fiction production from over a dozen countries confirms that a comparative approach can both shed light on processes of adaptation and appropriation of the genre within specific national regional or local contexts and also uncover similarities between the works of authors from very different areas Contributors explore discourse concerning national and historical memory language race ethnicity culture and gender and examine how identity is affirmed and challenged in the crime genre today They reveal a growing tendency towards hybridization and postmodern experimentation and increasing engagement with philosophical enquiry into the epistemological dimensions of investigation Throughout the notion of stable identities is subject to scrutiny While each essay in itself is a valuable addition to existing criticism on the genre all the chapters mutually inform and complement each other in fascinating and often unexpected ways This volume makes an important contribution to the growing field of crime fiction studies and to ongoing debates on questions of identity It will therefore be of special interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction Experiments with Empire Justin Izzo,2019-05-06 In Experiments with Empire Justin Izzo examines how twentieth century writers artists and anthropologists from France West Africa and the Caribbean experimented with ethnography and fiction in order to explore new ways of knowing the colonial and postcolonial world Focusing on novels films and ethnographies that combine fictive elements and anthropological methods and modes of thought Izzo shows how empire gives ethnographic fictions the raw materials for thinking beyond empire s political and epistemological boundaries In works by French surrealist writer Michel Leiris and filmmaker Jean Rouch Malian writer Amadou Hamp t B Martinican author Patrick Chamoiseau and others anthropology no longer functions on behalf of imperialism as a way to understand and administer colonized peoples its relationship with imperialism gives writers and artists the opportunity for textual experimentation and political provocation It also Izzo contends helps readers to better make sense of the complicated legacy of imperialism and to imagine new democratic futures Nottingham French Studies ,2000 The Image of the City in Literature, Media, and Society Society for the Interdisciplinary Study of Social Imagery. Conference,2003 Merian ,2006 Solea Jean-Claude Izzo,2007 The third and final installment in the remarkable Marseilles Trilogy continues Izzos distinctive brand of vibrant crime writing skillfully evoking a time and place that have captured the imaginations of readers the world over Die Marseille-Trilogie Jean C.
