Landfall Nevil Shute, 2010-07-13 When Jerry Chambers a young coastal patrol pilot during World War II is accused of mistakenly sinking a British submarine he is reprimanded and sent to a remote posting to test an experimental new bomb a dangerous mission far away from the woman he loves While Jerry risks his life his sweetheart Mona sets about trying to clear her lover's name before it is too late

The Breaking Wave Nevil Shute, 2010-08-24 The Breaking Wave is one of Nevil Shute's most poignant and psychologically suspenseful novels set in the years just after World War II Sidelined by a wartime injury fighter pilot Alan Duncan reluctantly returns to his parents' remote sheep station in Australia to take the place of his brother Bill who died a hero in the war But his homecoming is marred by the suicide of his parents' parlormaid of whom they were very fond Alan soon realizes that the dead young woman is not the person she pretended to be Upon discovering that she had served in the Royal Navy and participated along with his brother in the secret build up to the Normandy invasion Alan sets out to piece together the tragic events and the lonely burden of guilt that unravelled one woman's life In the process of finding the answer to the mystery he realizes how much he had in common with this woman he never knew and how a war can go on killing people long after it's all over

Pied Piper Nevil Shute, 2010-08-24 One of Nevil Shute's most exciting novels Pied Piper is the gripping story of one elderly man's daring attempt to rescue a group of children during the Nazi invasion of France It is the spring of 1940 and John Sidney Howard wants nothing more than to enjoy his fishing holiday in southern France in peace and quiet However the Nazi conquest of the Low Countries puts an end to that and he is asked by friends to take their two children back to England Crossing France with his young charges seems simple enough at first until the Germans invade rendering them fugitives As Howard struggles to sneak across France he picks up several more helpless children of various nationalities They walk for miles in an endless river of refugees strafed by German planes and hiding in barns at night By the time Howard and his flock of little ones reach the Channel his plan of escaping on a fishing boat has become utterly impossible and in their final confrontation with the invaders all their lives are at stake

On the Beach Nevil Shute, 2010-02-09 The most shocking fiction I have read in years What is shocking about it is both the idea and the sheer imaginative brilliance with which Mr Shute brings it off THE SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE They are the last generation the innocent victims of an accidental war living out their last days making do with what they have hoping for a miracle As the deadly rain moves ever closer the world as we know it winds toward an inevitable end

Flight International, 1978 The Ship of Dreams Alistair Fox, 2008 This is the first critical study to investigate at length how masculine subjectivities are represented in contemporary New Zealand fiction Notoriously self-contained and private Kiwi men are often reluctant to talk about their personal feelings and embarrassed at the thought that any private emotional difficulties could be exposed to critical examination One must go to their imaginative literature to make contact with the reality that underlies the often calculatedly deceptive surface In his investigation of these issues author Alistair Fox demonstrates the crucial importance of Pakeha and Maori cultural predispositions influencing masculine identity in New Zealand often at the cost of great psychic pain for the men involved Postcolonial Pacific Writing Michelle

Keown,2004-12-17 This major new interdisciplinary study focuses on the representation of the body in the work of eight of Polynesia's most significant contemporary writers Drawing on anthropology psychoanalysis philosophy history and medicine Postcolonial Pacific Writing develops an innovative postcolonial framework specific to the literatures and cultures of this region Directory of Members, Catalogue - the International Fraternity of Phi Gamma Delta Phi Gamma

Delta,1962 Studio International ,1975 Urban Land ,2002 Aftershocks Colin Kahl,Thomas Wright,2021-08-24

Two of America's leading national security experts offer a definitive account of the global impact of COVID 19 and the political shock waves it will have on the United States and the world order in the 21st Century Informed by history reporting and a truly global perspective this is an indispensable first draft of history and blueprint for how we can move forward Ben Rhodes The COVID 19 pandemic killed millions infected hundreds of millions and laid bare the deep vulnerabilities and inequalities of our interconnected world The accompanying economic crash was the worst since the Great Depression with the International Monetary Fund estimating that it will cost over 22 trillion in global wealth over the next few years Over two decades of progress in reducing extreme poverty was erased just in the space of a few months Already fragile states in every corner of the globe were further hollowed out The brewing clash between the United States and China boiled over and the worldwide contest between democracy and authoritarianism deepened It was a truly global crisis necessitating a collective response and yet international cooperation almost entirely broke down with key world leaders hardly on speaking terms Colin Kahl and Thomas Wright's Aftershocks offers a riveting and comprehensive account of one of the strangest and most consequential years on record Drawing on interviews with officials from around the world and extensive research the authors tell the story of how nationalism and major power rivalries constrained the response to the worst pandemic in a century They demonstrate the myriad ways in which the crisis exposed the limits of the old international order and how the reverberations from COVID 19 will be felt for years to come The Empires' Edge Sasha Davis,2015 Based on a decade of research The

Empires Edge examines the tremendous damage the militarization of the Pacific has wrought and contends that the great political contest of the twenty first century is about the choice between domination or the pursuit of a more egalitarian and cooperative future Art ... Chicago at Navy Pier ,2009 The River House Angela R. Newland,2023-05-08 Engineer Victoria and her husband Kevin purchased the house of their dreams on the Caloosahatchee River in Southwest Florida in 2016 Although the house was over forty years old the couple happily endured various home repair and improvement projects knowing that the stunning beauty of the home's location was well worth any aggravation Their blissful state of mind was shattered less than a year after they purchased the property when Hurricane Irma paid an unwelcome visit The hurricane's horrific damage to their beloved home was only the beginning of their agonies The tense saga of dealing with a dysfunctional property insurance company was then superseded by the convoluted process for getting their house reconstructed to the current building code The cliffhanger ending is followed by lessons learned that are beneficial to anyone living in a hurricane prone area

The Best of Albert Wendt's Short Stories Albert Wendt, 2013-12-16 A collection of classic short stories from the award winning author Albert Wendt acknowledged as one of the Pacific's major writers Albert Wendt's short stories providing a complex and profound understanding of people and the world have been read and praised in New Zealand the Pacific and internationally This collection brings together his classic stories published in the Flying Fox in a Freedom Tree and the Birth and Death of the Miracle Man and Other Stories together with exciting previously uncollected work his stories have the tone of timeless and very savvy fables New York Times A writer of international importance Landfall Boating, 1976-01

Sport Diver, 1997-07 Animated 'Worlds' Suzanne Buchan, 2007-02-20 What do we mean by the term animation when we are discussing film Is it a technique A style A way of seeing or experiencing a world that has little relation to our own lived experience of the world In Animated Worlds contributors reveal the astonishing variety of worlds animation confronts us with Essays range from close film analyses to phenomenological and cognitive approaches spectatorship performance literary theory and digital aesthetics Authors include Vivian Sobchack Richard Weihe Thomas Lamarre Paul Wells and Karin Wehn

The Oxford History of New Zealand Literature in English Terry Sturm, 1998 This is the most comprehensive history of New Zealand literature to have been published It offers chapters on the novel poetry and on the short story which have been the staple of earlier histories and surveys as well as sections on drama non-fiction children's literature popular literature and the history of publishing patronage and literary magazines In this major new edition material is provided on the period from 1986 1996 and a new chapter has been included on literary scholarship criticism and theory

Beyond Hostile Islands Daniel McKay, 2024-04-02 WINNER JAVIER COY BIENNIAL RESEARCH AWARD BEST MONOGRAPH Offers a fascinating window into how the fraught politics of apology in the East Asian region have been figured in anglophone literary fiction The Pacific War 1941 1945 was fought across the world's largest ocean and left a lasting imprint on anglophone literary history However studies of that imprint or of individual authors have focused on American literature without drawing connections to parallel traditions elsewhere Beyond Hostile Islands contributes to ongoing efforts by Australasian scholars to place their national cultures in conversation with those of the United States particularly regarding studies of the ideologies that legitimize warfare Consecutively the book examines five of the most significant historical and thematic areas associated with the war island combat economic competition internment imprisonment and the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Throughout the central issue pivots around the question of how or whether at all New Zealand fiction writing differs from that of the United States Can a sense of islandness the tyranny of distance Mori cultural heritage or the political legacies of the nuclear free movement provide grounds for distinctive authorial insights As an opening gambit Beyond Hostile Islands puts forward the term ideological coproduction to describe how a territorially and demographically more minor national culture may accede to the essentials of a given ideology while differing in aspects that reflect historical and provincial dimensions that are important to it Appropriately the literary texts under examination are set in various locales including Japan the Solomon Islands New Zealand New Mexico Ontario and the Marshall Islands The book concludes in a deliberately open ended pose with the full expectation that literary writing on the Pacific War will grow in range and richness aided by the growth of Pacific Studies as a research area
