Lappel Du Silence:

Cinema, Colonialism, Postcolonialism Dina Sherzer, 2010-07-05 In this first major study of French colonial and postcolonial cinema Dina Sherzer compiles essays by some of the foremost scholars on the subject who interrogate and analyze the realities behind the images of the nation's past and present Through an examination of France and its colonies multiethnic contemporary France and cinematic discourses which have been and are being produced about France's colonial past these authors explore how the images relay underlying assumptions and their relation to historical and political facts A variety of subjects and viewpoints inform these studies which cover the entire range of films on that topic The authors expound upon the role French and Francophone films are currently playing in reconstructing and imagining France's colonial past Not only do the essays examine how French cinema has represented the encounter of French citizens with individuals from former colonies during the colonial era they examine how French cinema has portrayed and has come to terms with the immigration of former colonial subjects to France In addition the book features another postcolonial facet by analyzing films of directors from the former colonies who give their own representation of colonialism and presentation of their culture This study is a major contribution to postcolonial research Race gender and geography are central themes throughout this book that presents innovative material that contributes to the history of French cinema and emphasizes how cinema participates in and is a part of national culture Genre, Myth, and Convention in the French Cinema, 1929-1939 C. G. Crisp, 2002 This work identifies patterns in the fields of character narrative and setting in the French cinema of the early sound period

Identity Papers Steven Ungar, Tom Conley, 1996-01-01 What does citizenship mean What is the process of naturalization one goes through in becoming a citizen and what is its connection to assimilation How do the issues of identity raised by this process manifest themselves in culture These questions and the way they arise in contemporary France are the focus of this diverse collection The essays in this volume range in subject from fiction and essay to architecture and film Among the topics discussed are the 1937 Exposition Universelle films dealing with Vichy France François Truffaut's Histoire d'Adèle H the war of Algerian independence and nation building under François Mitterrand Amazon.com Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym

The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and RenZ Clair_to French New Wave artists such as Fran_ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Sites of imperial memory Dominik Geppert, Frank Muller, 2016-05-16 Europe's great colonial empires have long been a thing of the past but the memories they generated are still all around us They have left deep imprints on the different memory communities that were affected by the processes of establishing running and dismantling these systems of imperial rule and they are still vibrant and evocative today This volume brings together a collection of innovative and fresh studies exploring different sites of imperial memory those conceptual and real places where the memories of former colonial rulers and of former colonial subjects have crystallised into a lasting form The volume explores how memory was built up re shaped and preserved across different empires continents and centuries It shows how it found concrete expression in stone and bronze how it adhered to the stories that were told and retold about great individuals and how it was suppressed denied and neglected Visions of the East Matthew Bernstein, Gaylyn Studlar, 1997 Essays on orientalism in American and European cinema The French Screen Goddess Jonathan Driskell, 2015-03-26 Many years before Brigitte Bardot and Catherine Deneuve rose to fame the French cinema produced a host of glamorous female stars designed to rival their Hollywood counterparts Bathed in soft light discussed adoringly in fan magazines and shown wearing the latest fashions these cinematic stars emerged in opposition to France's traditional stage based stardom while remaining through the roles they played and the looks they sported a distinctly French phenomenon The French Screen Goddess examines how these stars influenced the narratives and look of their films contributed to defining the period's new emancipated femininity the modern woman and related to the decade's politics particularly the Popular Front of the mid 1930s The book focuses on the three most important examples of this type of stardom Annabella Danielle Darrieux and Michele Morgan while also considering many other key stars such as Arletty Viviane Romance and Jean Gabin Previously neglected films are considered and true classics of French cinema re-examined with Rene Clair's Quatorze juillet Julien Duvivier's La Bandera and Marcel Carne's Le Quai des brumes and Hotel du Nord foremost among these Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken, 2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation Charles de Foucauld Jean-Jacques Antier, 2022-03-23 My Father I put myself in your hands wrote Charles de Foucauld in his journal Whatever you make of me I thank you I am ready for everything I accept everything I thank you for everything When he was killed by bandits in 1916 the French aristocrat turned monk was virtually unknown Over the course of a century however the radiance of Foucauld's hidden life has spread more and more and the Church now recognizes him as a saint His youth and early adulthood read like a novel the loss of his parents his education in Paris where he abandoned the faith of his childhood his military career in French Algeria and his exploration of Morocco After a conversion at the age of twenty eight Foucauld was charged with a desire to surrender himself completely to God leading him eventually to a life of prayer in the Algerian desert There he devoted himself to adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and charity toward his Muslim neighbors even to the point of death Jean Jacques Antier describes Foucauld's dramatic inspiring life in a vivid narrative style He based his biography on the man's writings and correspondence as well as interviews with numerous people who knew him Illustrated with sixteen pages of photos and indexed Ralph Waldo Emerson Marie Dugard,1907 Promised Lands Sam Rohdie,2019-07-25 An attempt to locate cinema alongside philosophy painting geography and travel in terms of a history of modernism The book focuses on a collection of geographical and ethnographic films and photographs amassed by banker Albert Kahn in the 1900s arguably an instance of French modernism Colonial Culture in France since the Revolution Pascal Blanchard,Sandrine Lemaire,Nicolas Bancel,Dominic Thomas,2013-12-02 This landmark collection by an international group of scholars and public intellectuals represents a major reassessment of French colonial culture and how it continues to inform thinking about history memory and identity This reexamination of French colonial culture provides the basis for a revised understanding of its cultural political and social legacy and its lasting impact on postcolonial immigration the treatment of ethnic minorities and national identity Colonial Cinema and Imperial France, 1919-1939 David Henry Slavin,2001-10-09 In this book the author uses such key colonial era films as L Atlantide and Pepe le Moko to document how the French cinema reflected the changing policies and values of French colonialism in the inter war period L'Appel Du Vide Sarah AA,2019-12-03 The call of the void is words that are spoken truly from the heart It is simply about anything and everything How we as people are a disgrace to our own duties It is also studies love sin afterlife and peace This book is for those who need it So please handle it gently and with an open mind Rogues, Romance, and Exoticism in French Cinema of the 1930s Colleen Kennedy-Karpal,2013-04-11 Many popular French films of the 1930s captured the world and brought it into neighborhood cinemas for filmgoers who craved adventure These films often served as visual postcards from the French empire which enjoyed an unprecedented visibility in domestic popular culture between the world wars But the public appetite for the exotic also transcended imperial borders Exoticist films displayed landscapes and different that lay beyond the metropole many of which were not subject to European rule This broad conception of the exotic meant that French narrative cinema represented both colonial and non colonial settings and populations developing a coherent set of tropes that were shaped yet not entirely defined by the politics of imperial rule Empire alone cannot address the full range of the French exoticist imaginary that was projected onto movie screens in the 30s Only by venturing beyond imperial boundaries can we fully understand how the French saw non Westerners and by extension how they saw themselves during this tumultuous decade Rogues Romance and Exoticism in French Cinema of the 1930s proposes a critical framework for exoticist cinema that includes and exceeds the limits of empire From rogue colons to the m tisse in love from the deserts of North Africa to the streets of Shanghai this book identifies and analyzes recurring figures common settings major stars plot devices and narrative outcomes that dominated exoticist cinema at its popular peak French Cinema—A Critical Filmography Colin Crisp, 2015-06-29 This invaluable resource by one of the world s leading experts in French cinema presents a coherent overview of French cinema in the 20th century and its place and function in French society Each filmography includes 101 films listed chronologically Volume 1 1929 1939 and Volume 2 1940 1958 and provides accessible points of entry into the remarkable world of 20th century French cinema All entries contain a list of cast members and characters production details an overview of the film s cultural and historical significance and a critical summary of the film s plot and narrative structure Each volume includes an appendix listing rewards earned and an extensive reference list for further reading and research A third volume covering the period 1958 1974 is forthcoming Revolution in Paradise Yehuda Moraly, 2019-11-01 The era of the German Occupation of France constituted surprisingly a golden age for the arts literature theater popular music and cinema These works of art seem to be devoid of political impact The widespread trend of unrealistic and fantastic art during this period is explained by some scholars as the artists escape from the omnipotent eye of German censorship The purpose of the book is to show that contrary to the accepted view some of these films were intimately linked to the political situation They convey the demonization of characters that while not specifically presented as Jews nevertheless manifested anti Semitic stereotypes of the Jew as ugly rootless low hypocritical immoral cruel and power hungry All five movies analysed Les Inconnus dans la maison dir Henri Decoin 1942 Les Visiteurs du Soir dir Marcel Carne 1942 L Eternel retour dir Jean Delannoy 1943 Les Enfants du Paradis dir Marcel Carne 1943 present characters not identified as Jews but who exhibit negative Jewish traits in contrast to the aristocratic characters whom they aspire to emulate They demonstrate implicitly central themes of explicit anti Semitic propaganda Yehuda Moraly addresses two current major misconceptions regarding the Cinema of Occupied France 1 that the accepted view that there were almost no explicitly Jewish characters in the cinema of that time and place is patently incorrect and 2 that the feature films of Occupied France were not as it is commonly thought free of the propaganda messages that permeated the press the radio and documentary films Analysis of these films brings out the contradictory nature of European anti Semitism On one hand the Jew is the anti Christ throttling the world with disgusting materialism while on the other hand he is representative of an ancestral stifling morality which it is time to abolish Understanding Barthes, Understanding Modernism Jeffrey R. Di Leo, Zahi Zalloua, 2022-07-14 Understanding Barthes Understanding Modernism is a general assessment of the modern literary and philosophical contributions of Roland Barthes The first part of the volume focuses on work published prior to Barthes's death in 1980 covering the major periods of his development from Writing Degree Zero 1953 to Camera Lucida: Reflections on Photography 1980 The second part focuses both on the posthumously published material and the legacies of his work after his death in 1980 This later work has attracted attention for example in conjunction with notions of the neutral gay writing and critiques of everyday life The third part is devoted to some of the critical vocabulary of Barthes in both the work he published during his lifetime and that which was published posthumously

Heroic imperialists in Africa Berny Sèbe, 2015-11-01 From the height of New Imperialism until the Second World War three generations of heroes of the British and French empires in Africa were selected manufactured and packaged for consumption by a metropolitan public eager to discover new horizons and to find comfort in the concept of a civilising mission This book looks at imperial heroism by examining the legends of a dozen major colonial figures on both sides of the Channel revisiting the familiar stories of Livingstone Gordon and Kitchener from a radically new angle and throwing light on their French counterparts often less famous in the Anglophone world but certainly equally fascinating

French National Cinema Susan Hayward, 2005 This revised and updated version of a successful and established text French National Cinema offers a thorough and much needed historical overview of French cinema at a time when it continues to grow in popularity with films such as Amélie and Belleville Rendez vous Brought wholly up to date to include political and social developments in French cinema in the 1990s its fresh approach and groundbreaking new writing on the subject offers a much further understanding of French cinema and its relationship with the French national identity New subjects covered include the GATT negotiations of 1993 French cinema's increasing dependence on investment from television the rise of the multiplex the implications of the introduction of digital technology Ideal for all students of cinema film studies and film history this book traces the eco history of the French film and its key figures and movements and it places them in their wider political and cultural context
