

Issue Spotting a Contracts Law Question

I. Did the traders form a contract?

a. Rule: A K is a legal status

b. Was there an offer?

- i. An offer creates a power of acceptance in the offeree. To be valid, an offer must be: (1) an expression of promise, undertaking, or commitment to enter into a K; (2) definite and certain in its terms (identification of offeree and definiteness of subject matter); and (3) communicated to the offeree

c. Was the offer an invitation to bargain in the bilateral mode or in the unilateral mode?

- i. In a bilateral K, the offeree accepts by promising to do a stipulated act
- ii. In a unilateral K, the offeree accepts by performing a stipulated act. The offeree of a unilateral K must act w/ knowledge of the offer and be motivated by it

d. Was there a valid acceptance?

- i. General rule: An offer to bargain in the unilateral mode can only be accepted by total completion of the requested act
- ii. Exception: Once the offeree begins the substantial performance of the requested act, he does n/ form the K but he does cut off the power of the offeror to revoke so as to give the offeree a reasonable opportunity to complete that which he has begun.

e. Was there consideration (bargained for legal detriment on both sides of the exchange)?

- i. Was there a promise to perform an act which, but for this bargain, the offeree was n/ legally obligated to perform?

Constitutional Law Steven Emanuel,1998 Stewart Macaulay: Selected Works David Campbell,2020-10-30 This book represents a unique resource about Stewart Macaulay one of the common law world s leading scholars of the law of contract and of the law in action approach to the study of law Since 1959 he has published over 50 articles in leading journals a number of working papers with colleagues at the University of Wisconsin Law School a pathbreaking casebook for the teaching of the law of contract and with other colleagues equally pathbreaking collections of materials for the teaching of the law in action or law in context approach to the study of law In this work Macaulay has established himself as one of the postwar world s leading scholars of the law of contract and of the sociology of law His work is an absolute reference point in both disciplines and it has attracted great attention elsewhere most notably in economic sociology where his concept of non contractual economic relationships is regarded as an important theoretical innovation Macaulay s work has become an object of commentary in its own right and the proposed book is intended to assist further such commentary by making hitherto difficult to obtain works readily accessible Most of Macaulay s work is now when the leading journals are generally available in electronic form readily accessible to students and researchers in universities There are however a number of interesting and in most cases important works published in less accessible journals or works which were not published in an electronic form which are difficult to obtain This book will make them readily available and in so doing will make it possible in future for scholars to have Macaulay s complete oeuvre readily to hand Although Macaulay s work has provoked very considerable discussion there previously have been no overall accounts of that work as opposed to critical engagements with aspects of it In this book two additional essays by leading commentators give accounts of Macaulay s work and provide an introduction to exegesis of and general evaluation of Macaulay s work as a whole which is not to be found in the existing literature
