Health Beliefs about Your Head

There's so much advice on how to stay healthy that it can make your head hurt just thinking about it. To help, let's examine some of the common beliefs that are out there about one of our most important body parts: Hair.

Hair dye causes cancer. Although hair dye made before 1980 contained chemicals that cause cancer in animals, today's dyes are much safer. However, modern hair dyes still contain thousands of chemicals, so experts remain unsure whether they cause cancer or not. That being said, it's better not to dye your hair too often.

Eating black sesame seeds can turn gray hair black. Many people believe black sesame seeds slow down the signs of aging, including gray hairs. That's because they're filled with important vitamins and nutrients. Therefore, while no scientific studies have proven that black sesame seeds help keep your hair looking young, they are still very healthy.

As for the best way to avoid gray hairs, stay away from stress, smoking, and poor diet, as these have all been shown to cause gray hair. There's more to your head than the hair on it. Let's take a look at some other beliefs that you may have heard before.

Eating very cold foods will give you a headache. Also called brain freeze, this can happen when you quickly eat something very cold like ice cream. This is because when the cold food touches the top of your mouth or throat it increases blood flow to certain areas of your head which causes a temporary headache So to enjoy headache free ice cream stick to licking it Cutting a baby s eyelashes can make them grow longer Long thick eyelashes on a baby are so cute that some parents may risk hurting their children by cutting their baby s eyelashes to help them grow longer However this claim has no scientific basis The factors that influence eyelash growth are nutrition and genetics But what can mothers do to help their babies grow long beautiful lashes It s simple just make sure the baby is receiving proper nutrition Now you know the truth behind these common head health claims Don t let this knowledge go to your head
